CHECKLIST - APPLICATION FOR RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING

TYPES OF ADVANCED STANDING:

- > A Subject Exemption may be granted if it can be proven that you have previously studied a subject equivalent to a required UTS subject.
- > General Advanced Standing may be granted for a specific number of subjects if your prior studies can be proven to be relevant to your UTS course, but do not directly correspond to specific subjects in the course.
- > Automatic Credit may be granted if the subject and version required for your current course has been completed as part of another UTS course.

INSTRUCTIONS

Please submit your application for Recognition of Prior Learning along with your International Student Application Form.

The following documents must be attached to your application:

(1) A Fully Completed "Application for Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)" Form

- > Obtain this form at any UTS Faculty or UTS Administrative Office or you may download it from the web at: www.sau.uts.edu.au/forms

(2) Certified Copy of Academic Transcript

- > A certified copy of an Academic Transcript (NOT a Result Notice) for your previous study. Academic Transcripts can be certified by an official UTS agent if the original is presented with a photocopy for certification.
- > A certified copy of the grading system of the previous educational institution must also be provided.

(3) Certified Copies of Official Subject Outlines

- > For each exemption sought, a subject outline must be provided, meeting the following criteria. Students should submit the certified copy with the form and retain the originals as a back-up copy.
- > Subject outlines must reflect the year the subject outline is relevant to, and this must be the same year in which the student passed the subject.
- > Outlines must contain details of the topics covered, hours of class time, the method of assessment used and textbooks required. A paragraph from an institution's Calendar/ Handbook is not sufficient. Inadequate outlines will not be accepted.
- > Subject outlines must be in English. If subject outlines have been translated to English, they must be stamped as translated by a professional interpreter.

Submit your application in person to the UTS International Office (Level 3A, Tower Building, 15 Broadway, Sydney) or by mail to:
