Current School Leaver Selection

Applicants undertaking a 2010 Australian Year 12 examination are selected on the basis of an Australian Tertiary Admissions Ranks (ATAR) or equivalent only.

Non Current School Leaver Selection

Applicants are selected on the basis of academic merit. Personal statements will not be considered unless you are submitting a Special Tertiary Admissions Test (STAT) or Limited ATAR – please refer to information regarding the STAT and Limited ATAR below.

Applicants are considered on the basis of any qualifications listed below in the section “Qualifications Used in Selection”. Generally the most recent recognised qualification is considered unless the applicant was previously excluded or has a record of fails in a tertiary qualification used in selection.

Applicants with a previous record of exclusion or failed tertiary level subjects must write to the Admissions Manager (SAU, PO Box 123, UTS Broadway NSW 2007) by the last working day of November explaining their academic history and how they believe they can succeed in future study.

Non Current School Leaver applicants may also be selected on the basis of the STAT (Multiple Choice and written English). An interview process may be required as deemed necessary by the selecting academic.

See <http://www.uts.edu.au/study/additional.html> for the definitions of current and non-current school leaver.

Definitions

AQF: The Australian Qualifications Framework (commonly known as the AQF) is a unified system of national qualifications in schools, vocational education and training (TAFEs and private providers) and the higher education sector (mainly universities). For detailed information on AQF Accreditation see <http://www.aqf.edu.au/>

FTE: Full time equivalence. 1 year FTE is one year of full time study or equivalent. One year full time study is the credit value worth of subjects determined by your institution to satisfy the completion of your degree in the minimum time permitted.

Non-Award Study: Non-Award study is the enrolment in a subject (or subjects) which does not in itself lead to an award. It comprises a unit or units of study from a degree course. With Faculty approval, successfully completed units can be counted as credit towards a degree undertaken at a later time.
