Current School Leaver Selection

Applicants undertaking a 2010 Australian Year 12 Examination are selected solely on the basis of their Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) or equivalent.

Non Current School Leaver Selection

Applicants are selected on the basis of academic merit only.

Academic merit is determined on the basis of any qualifications listed below in the section "Qualifications Used in Selection". For non-current school leaver applicants, 25% of their latest secondary results and 75% of their best tertiary qualifications will generally be used unless the applicant possesses only one type of qualification. In the latter case, the qualification will contribute 100% towards selection.

Personal statements are not considered for entry to undergraduate Law courses unless you are undertaking the Limited ATAR in 2010.

Applicants who do not have any qualifications listed below in the section "Qualifications Used in Selection" but possess legal experience and related employment may be invited by the Faculty to submit a questionnaire.

Applicants with a previous record of exclusion or failed tertiary level subjects must write to the Admissions Manager (SAU, PO Box 123, UTS Broadway NSW 2007) by the last working day of November explaining their academic history and how they believe they can succeed in future study.

See <http://www.uts.edu.au/study/additional.html> for the definitions of current and non-current school leaver.

Qualifications Used in Selection

The following qualifications are considered for admission into Faculty of Law Courses.

Australian and New Zealand Secondary Qualifications

The following completed senior secondary qualifications are considered for admission.
If there is more than one attempt at a secondary qualification, the most recent attempt will be used.

- New South Wales Higher School Certificate
- ACT Year 12 Certificate
- Queensland Senior Examination
- South Australian Certificate of Education
- Tasmanian Certificate of Education
- Victorian Certificate of Education
- Western Australian Year 12
- New Zealand National Certificate in Educational Achievement (NCEA) Level 3

Limited ATAR

The Faculty of Law will consider a Limited ATAR. If you are using a Limited ATAR as the basis of admission, you must be over 20 years of age on 1 March 2011 and submit a personal statement directly to UTS.

The International Baccalaureate

The completed International Baccalaureate (IB) is considered for the above undergraduate Law courses.

International Secondary Qualifications

UTS accepts many international secondary qualifications. If your qualification is not listed by UAC in Table 7 of "Commonly Accepted Overseas Qualifications" (<http://www.uac.edu.au/undergraduate/admission/overseas.shtml>) please contact the UTS Student Centre via email through the website www.sau.uts.edu.au/askuts.html for information regarding the specific overseas secondary qualifications.

Tertiary preparation courses

NSW TAFE Tertiary Preparation Certificate

The Faculty of Law will consider the completed NSW TAFE tertiary preparation certificate.

Foundation Studies Programs

The Faculty of Law will consider completed UTS Foundation Studies, UNSW University Foundation Studies and University of Sydney Foundation Program.

Definitions

AQF: The Australian Qualifications Framework (commonly known as the AQF) is a unified system of national qualifications in schools, vocational education and training (TAFEs and private providers) and the higher education sector (mainly universities). For detailed information on AQF Accreditation see <http://www.aqf.edu.au/>

FTE: Full time equivalence. 1 year FTE is one year of full time study or equivalent. One year full time study is the credit value worth of subjects determined by your institution to satisfy the completion of your degree in the minimum time permitted.

Non-Award Study: Non-Award study is the enrolment in a subject (or subjects) which does not in itself lead to an award. It comprises a unit or units of study from a degree course. With Faculty approval, successfully completed units can be counted as credit towards a degree undertaken at a later time.
