

Welcome

“Our global community is one of the things that makes UTS such a vibrant place to learn, connect and grow.”

Welcome to UTS and to Sydney!

We're delighted you've chosen UTS for your study abroad experience. Studying in a new country is a transformative opportunity and we're committed to making your time with us enriching, supportive and memorable.

You're now part of a diverse community of students, academics and staff from over 120 countries. Our global community is one of the things that makes UTS such a vibrant place to learn, connect and grow.

At UTS, we believe learning goes beyond the classroom. I encourage you to get involved, whether that's volunteering, joining a sport or social club, exploring entrepreneurship or taking part in our leadership programs. There's something here for everyone.

Adjusting to a new environment can take time. Remember, our staff and services are here to support you, don't be afraid to ask for help when you need it.

I wish you a rewarding, enjoyable and inspiring time at UTS and in Sydney.

Leo Mian Liu
Interim Deputy Vice-Chancellor (International)

Acknowledgement of Country

Acknowledging country is a cultural protocol that is a respectful public acknowledgment of the traditional custodians of the land.

UTS acknowledges the Gadigal People of the Eora Nation and the Boorooberongal People of the Dharug Nation upon whose ancestral lands our campuses stand.

We would also like to pay respect to the Elders both past and present, acknowledging them as the traditional custodians of knowledge for these Lands.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT CENTRE

We're your main contact point at UTS. If you have questions about your study load, changing universities, need documentation or just don't know who to talk to – chat to us.

DOCUMENTATION

Need a letter confirming your student status? You can request one from the International Student Centre. This letter can help you to:

- prove your eligible dates for working unrestricted hours during official university breaks
- manage your tax and banking
- invite visitors to Australia
- renew your passport and change your visa.

To request documentation, submit an online request:

uts.edu.au/current-students/managing-your-course/your-student-info/student-or-alumni-records

Allow 5-10 working days for your letter to be issued. Processing may take longer during peak periods.

Accommodation

Finding the right place to live is one of the most important steps to feeling at home. Here are some tips to get you started.

UTS HOUSING

At UTS, we offer a range of comfortable, affordable and convenient living options.

All UTS Housing rooms are fully-furnished, for single occupancy and self-catered.

Choose from:

- a shared apartment; or
- a studio located on campus.

Note: Applications for UTS Housing open online twice a year (May and late September). As demand is high, we encourage early applications.

housing.uts.edu.au

The UTS Housing Service can also assist you with your off-campus accommodation search. We can help you with:

- short or long-term accommodation options
- your rights as a tenant in NSW.

✉ housing.service@uts.edu.au

PRIVATE STUDENT HOUSING

UTS students can apply for rooms at Scape (a private provider) with a 5% discount – subject to availability.

scape.com.au/uts-special-offer/

PRIVATE RENTALS

Usually managed by real estate agents, private rentals are covered by a formal rental contract. Private rentals are often unfurnished and don't include bills, meaning you'll need to buy your own furniture and pay your bills separately.

Sydney's rental market is very competitive. Follow these steps when searching for private rentals:

- search for properties online
- inspect the property in person
- if you like a place, be prepared to make an offer for it on the day of the inspection!

SHARED ACCOMMODATION

Don't want to live in student accommodation but still want to live with other people?

Shared accommodation (a share house) could be a good option for you.

A share house is a property that's occupied by multiple tenants under an informal agreement (with a lead tenant responsible for the formal lease).

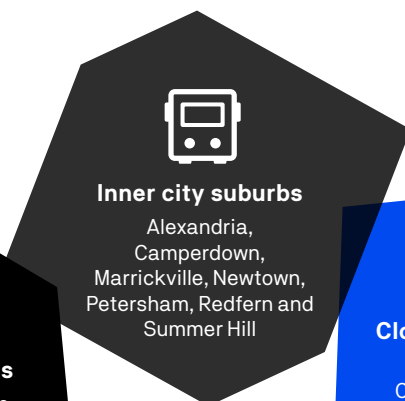

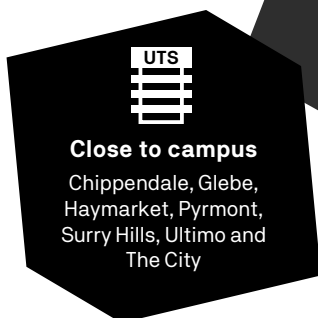

To search for share accommodation options, check out the off-campus section on the UTS Housing website, housing.uts.edu.au

Before you sign an agreement, always:

- view the property in person
- meet your housemates in person
- request a written agreement that clearly states the agreed price and what's included
- request detailed receipts for all payments, like your bond.

SYDNEY - THE CITY OF VILLAGES

Sydney is made up of many suburbs, each with its own distinctive character. Explore the areas and find your favourite vibe.

YOUR RENTAL RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

You have the same rental rights and responsibilities as an Australian.

Your rights

- The property owner is responsible for ensuring that the property is maintained and liveable.

Your responsibilities

- You are responsible for taking reasonable care of the property you're living in.

Read up on your rights on the Office of Fair Trading website.

fairtrading.nsw.gov.au

ACCOMMODATION ASSISTANCE

Our friendly advisors can offer support tailored to your needs.

housing.uts.edu.au

housing.service@uts.edu.au

Visa requirement

Update your address details with us and the Department of Home Affairs within 7 days of moving to a new property. Don't forget - it's a condition of your student visa! To update your address go to: myStudentAdmin.uts.edu.au homeaffairs.gov.au

Got an Australian bank account?

You'll most likely need an Australian bank account before you can sign your rental contract. Turn to page 12 to find out how to open a bank account.

Money and banking

An onshore bank account is essential for managing your money in Sydney. Set up regular payments for rent and bills and avoid international fees for your day-to-day purchases.

BANK ACCOUNT

Open a bank account in the first few weeks of your arrival. Most bank branches are open Monday to Friday, 9.30am to 4pm and some larger branches are open on Saturdays.

Australia's major banks include:

anz.com.au

commbank.com.au

nab.com.au

westpac.com.au

To set up an account, you'll need several forms of identification, including your:

- passport
- proof of enrolment.

ATMS

You'll find ATMs all over Sydney. Please note, some banks might charge you a fee for using your bank card at another bank's ATM machine. It's good to check this in your terms and conditions before signing up for a bank account.

CARD OR CASH?

Card payments, including contactless payment (PayPass or payWave), are widely accepted. However, it's still a good idea to carry some cash as some stores have a minimum spend for card payments.

Banking tips

Many banks offer accounts just for students, with lower fees and charges. Do some research before opening your account, or ask your chosen bank if they have any special deals for students.

Money transfers

Money transfers can take time, so make sure you have another way to get cash during your first few weeks. Overseas telegraphic transfers take around 3 working days to enter your Australian bank account, while bank drafts can take 2 or 3 weeks.

Student discount

Many retailers offer student discounts. Show your UTS student ID card or use the UNiDAYS app, to get the discount.

myunidays.com

MANAGING YOUR MONEY

Your first few weeks in Sydney will likely be more expensive than an average week. Plan ahead and budget your money for:

- food
- travel expenses
- social events
- emergencies.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

The Financial Assistance Service can assist you with practical and financial aspects of your university life. They also have self-help resources available through their website:

uts.edu.au/current-students/support/financial-help/financial-assistance-service

Getting around

UTS is next door to Central Station – connecting our campus to the rest of the city. That means you've got regular bus, train, metro and light rail services on your doorstep!

TRAVEL PAYMENT

Pay for your travel by tapping on and off at Opal Card readers with a valid contactless-enabled credit or debit card. Accepted card issuers are:

- American Express
- Mastercard
- Visa credit or debit card
- a linked device.

Note: If your card was issued outside of Australia, overseas transaction charges may apply. Contact your card issuer for more information.

transportnsw.info/tickets-opal/opal/contactless-payments

Alternatively, you can purchase an Opal card (Sydney's transport smartcard), which is valid for most public transport in and around Sydney. Buy your Opal card at train and light rail stations, ferry wharves or convenience stores. Top up with cash, or set up automatic top-up online through the Opal app.

Note: as an international student in Sydney, you'll need to buy an Adult Opal card.

Concession Opal cards are only available to international students on an Australian government scholarship.

opal.com.au

BUSES

Most buses are pre-pay only. That means you'll need your contactless or Opal card to board.

METRO

Sydney Metro is a fast way to travel the 21 stops from Tallawong station, via Chatswood and the city, to Sydenham station.

Public transport tips

- Download a public transport app, e.g. TripView.
- Get a 30% discount when you travel on Fridays, weekends, public holidays, and outside peak times.
- Remember to tap on at the beginning of your trip and tap off at the end to be charged the correct fee!
- Buses will not stop unless signalled to do so. To signal the driver, reach out and give them a wave!

Walking and cycling tips

- In Australia we drive on the left side of the road. Look both ways before crossing the road!
- Always use pedestrian crossings, or risk a hefty fine! Jaywalking is illegal. Not only is it dangerous, and can lead to injury or death, but in NSW the fine for jaywalking starts at $75.
- Wear a helmet when cycling – it's the law!
- Use designated bicycle lanes.
- Do not cycle on footpaths, except shared cycleways.

TRAINS

The Sydney rail network is inexpensive, fast and reliable. Use your contactless or Opal card for all trains on the Sydney rail network.

FERRIES

Sydney's iconic yellow and green ferries connect our beach and harbour-side suburbs to our main ferry terminal – Circular Quay.

SYDNEY LIGHT RAIL (TRAMS)

Sydney Light Rail links the CBD with Sydney's inner western and eastern suburbs. Popular stops are Sydney Fish Markets, Darling Harbour, Chinatown, Surry Hills and Moore Park.

WALKING

A great way to explore the city, walking is the best way to discover Sydney's hidden gems.

Navigate your way around campus using our UTS preferred pathways. These paths are the quickest and safest routes for all of us at UTS to take full advantage of our inner-city location while avoiding traffic.

CYCLING

Convenient, healthy and environmentally friendly, cycling is a great way to get around Sydney. Sydney City Council offers workshops on riding in the city. Attend a workshop and discover the safer cycleways in your area.

sydneycycleways.net

Secure bicycle parking is available across Sydney and on campus. You'll find showers and bike racks in the Ross Milbourne Sports Hall and in Buildings 4, 5, 8 and 10.

For more information about Sydney transport, please visit:
transportnsw.info/travel-info/ways-to-get-around

CAMPUS SHUTTLE BUS

A free shuttle bus runs between Broadway and Botany Monday to Friday for staff and researchers working at Botany. Note that this service is run by a private bus company, however travel is free for all UTS staff and students.

techlab.uts.edu.au/bus-timetable

DRIVING

Want to drive in NSW? You can use your existing driver's licence for up to 6 months. After that, you'll need to get a NSW drivers licence.

service.nsw.gov.au/transaction/apply-for-a-nsw-licence-as-a-temporary-overseas-visitor

Owning and running a car in Sydney can be expensive. Found a cheap vehicle? Consider the costs of registration and insurance (both compulsory), petrol and parking – it all adds up!

Tip: Get an E-Toll. The Sydney metro area has many toll roads, most of which don't accept cash.

CAR SHARING

Popular in inner Sydney, car sharing means you don't have to think about car spaces or maintenance – or buying a car in the first place! Join a car-share scheme and you'll be able to use a car whenever you need it.

goget.com.au

flexicar.com.au

Road rules

NSW has strict laws on speeding, mobile phone use, and driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Police conduct Random Breath Tests (RBT) and Mobile Drug Tests (MDT) on motorists. Familiarise yourself with all the important road rules:
transport.nsw.gov.au/roadsafety

Food and shopping

Knowing where to find your favourite food is an important step towards feeling at home in Sydney. Eating well will also help you manage stress, stay focused in class and maintain your health. Luckily, you're surrounded by supermarkets and great places to eat!

SUPERMARKETS

Most supermarkets are open 7 days a week and stay open late. The closest supermarkets to UTS are Woolworths at Central Park, Coles and Aldi at Broadway Shopping Centre and Thaikee IGA at Market City.

aldi.com.au

coles.com.au

woolworths.com.au

Eating with friends

When eating out, you'll generally be expected to pay for yourself. The total bill is usually split between everyone at the end of the meal. If you're invited to someone's house, it's common to take a small contribution like something to drink.

INTERNATIONAL FOODS

With Sydney being a multicultural city, you'll find restaurants and stores with foods from across the world. Looking for a taste of home? Take a short stroll to:

- Paddy's Markets
- Spice Alley
- Sydney's Chinatown.

halaladvisor.com.au
jewishaustralia.com

UTS CENTRAL FOOD COURT

The UTS Central food court offers a range of food options as well as a vibrant space to eat, study and socialise.

What's more, it's also plastic-free! We have eliminated single-use plastics, opting instead for reusable, fully-compostable and recyclable products. Some cafés even offer a discount if you bring your own cup or container!

FREE FOOD

Our Student Association offers a free pop-up cafe during the Autumn and Spring teaching sessions.

Night Owl Noodle Bar

- Tuesday and Thursday, 5 to 7pm,

SHOPPING

Need to buy furniture and add your personal touch to your new home? You'll find everything you need and more at Kmart, Target and IKEA.

Second-hand shops, also known as 'op-shops,' are another good option; check out the Salvation Army (Salvos) and St Vincent de Paul (Vinnies) shops, or check online platforms like Gumtree and Facebook Marketplace.

gumtree.com.au

Did you know...

Sydney's water is filtered to the high standards set by the Australian Drinking Water Guidelines, meaning our water is safe to drink straight from the tap.

UTS has many filtered water stations around campus so you can refill your reusable drink bottle throughout the day. Save money and the environment – choose tap water!

Culture shock and your wellbeing

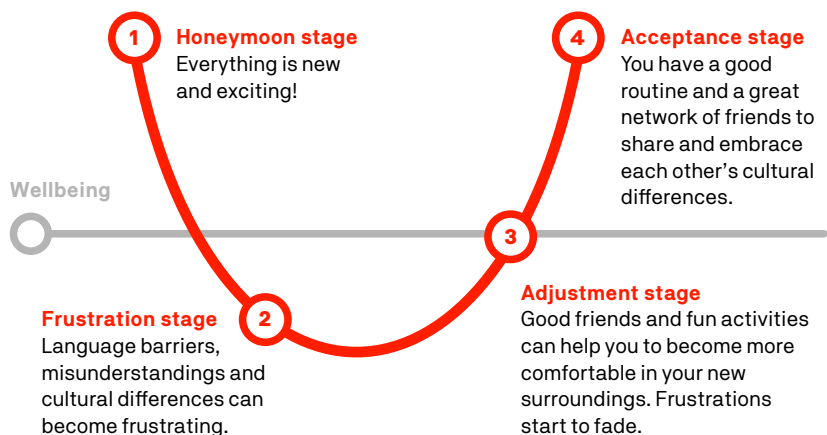

Living in a foreign country is a rewarding experience, but it's not without its challenges! It's normal to feel overwhelmed as you adjust to life in your new home. Luckily, help is always available.

CULTURE SHOCK

When you first arrive, you might experience some culture shock. If you feel overwhelmed and don't know where to go for help, speak with one of our international student advisors. See page 4 for contact details.

The four stages of culture shock

HUMAN RIGHTS (OR FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION)

In Australia, the culture, customs and rules may be different to in your home country. You are free to disagree about anything, have different opinions, write and show your beliefs and leave any club or organisation. You aren't free to use hate speech, make threats or false accusations, or look at or share private information without consent.

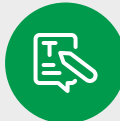

YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO:

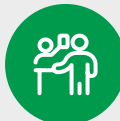

disagree about anything

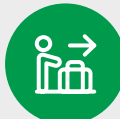

have different opinions in class

write your beliefs

show your beliefs

leave any club or organisation

YOU DO NOT HAVE A RIGHT TO:

use hate speech

make threats

make false accusations

look at or share others' private information without consent

WHERE TO GET HELP

If you experience hate speech, threats, false accusations, doxxing or a privacy breach, or surveillance that censors opinions, we can help.

You can report an incident to:

a teacher

a counsellor

UTS online submission

UTS Security

the police

GET CONNECTED

One of the best ways to conquer homesickness is to make new friends. Join one of our many clubs and societies and connect with others – there's a club for everyone!

KEEPING THE FAITH

Visit the chaplaincy team and hear from members from the Baha'i, Buddhist, Christian, Jewish and Islamic faiths, amongst others. Multi-faith rooms are available for use.

uts.edu.au/current-students/support/health-and-wellbeing/multi-faith-chaplaincy

"I really enjoy how multicultural UTS and Sydney is. Not only in class can you meet a lot of people from different cultures and backgrounds. Outside of class, I enjoy hanging out with people from all over the world. While studying in Australia, I can also work and earn some money to travel and refresh myself over the weekend. By the end of the weekend, I'm ready to get back to studying again."

Nat-A-Nong Photrait (Thailand)

Consent matters

We all have a responsibility to ensure a safe and respectful campus for all. UTS has introduced compulsory online training to give everyone at UTS a clear understanding of what constitutes unacceptable sexual behaviour as well as the skills to respond to inappropriate behaviour.

You'll be sent information about the training to your student email. Complete the one-hour module as soon as possible.

Support services

We offer a range of support services for our students, many of which are free. From medical appointments to legal and financial advice, we're here to help you through it all.

MEDICAL AND COUNSELLING SERVICES

The UTS Health Service offers friendly and confidential medical services to all UTS students. You can request a male or female doctor. Most treatments are free if you show your Medibank card. If you've forgotten your card or are with a different Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) provider, you can pay for the visit and make an online claim afterwards.

If you visit one of the many medical centres around Sydney, you'll need to pay at the time of your appointment. You can lodge an online claim with Medibank or your OSHC provider afterwards.

Our medical centre also offers a counselling service. It's free, confidential and offers flexible consultations via phone, video conferencing, or face-to-face. See page 20 for more information.

UTS STUDENT LEGAL SERVICE

Access free and confidential legal advice from the UTS Student Legal Service. It's available to all UTS students and can assist with:

- tenancy issues
- employment contracts
- consumer claims
- traffic issues.

Please note, the service can't provide legal advice on migration issues.

STUDENTS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

We're committed to providing equal opportunity for our students with special needs. If you have a temporary or permanent disability, including physical, sensory, psychiatric and learning disabilities, or an ongoing illness, support is available. In some cases, you may be able to apply for alternative assessments during teaching sessions or special conditions in examinations. You'll need to supply supporting documentation.

Safety and security

Sydney is Australia's safest city and the fourth safest in the world (The Economist's 2021 Safe Cities Index). It's a great place to live, but as with all big cities, you should keep these safety and security tips in mind.

STAY SAFE ON CAMPUS

We want you to feel safe and at home on our campus; that's why our security staff are on campus 24/7.

Our Staying Safe at UTS card lists all the emergency numbers you need – pick one up from the International Student Centre. Don't forget to update your emergency contact details in My Student Admin.

uts.edu.au/about/safety-wellbeing

Security – dial 6 from a campus phone or 1800 249 559.

General UTS security enquiries – security patrols our campus at all times. Dial 9514 1192 if you need general assistance.

UTS operates an after-hours security escort service for all staff and students to a UTS Building or a UTS residence and Central Railway Station. Contact the UTS Security Control Room on 9514 1192, 7 nights a week.

Report accidents, incidents and hazards by calling 1800 249 559 (security) or report to a staff member.

safetyandwellbeing@uts.edu.au

See page 40 for Emergency contacts.

PROTECT YOUR PASSWORD

UTS emails and logins are an attractive target for hackers.

Set up multi-factor authentication (MFA) to keep your information safe. For more information go to uts.edu.au/mfa

Be scam-aware

International students are often targeted by scammers, with common scams relating to tuition fee payments. In these cases, victims lose the money they paid to the scammer, and are still required to pay the full tuition fee amount to their university.

Please note that scammers may also use other methods and UTS advises all students to be wary.

To avoid becoming the victim of a scam you should ensure that you are familiar with the formal UTS payment methods. If you are a commencing student, please ensure you use one of the UTS Appointed Student Recruitment Agents.

If you have any questions or want to verify the authenticity of any payment method or agent, please contact UTS through 'ask UTS', via the My Student Portal.

STAY SAFE IN SYDNEY

Beach and sun safety

Sydney is home to many beautiful beaches, rivers and lakes. But if you want to go fishing or swimming, you need to know how to swim! At the beach, always swim between the red and yellow flags and with people you know. Never swim at an unpatrolled beach or at night.

Potential dangers can be difficult to spot and conditions can change quickly, even if the water looks calm.

Get familiar with basic water safety:

beachsafe.org.au

Always wear sunscreen too – the sun in Australia can be very strong, even on a cloudy day!

Bushwalking

Bushwalking is a great way to explore our beautiful national parks. Make sure you take a map, plenty of water, wet weather gear, warm clothes and a phone on your bushwalking trip. Walk with friends and take an emergency beacon; you can pick one up from camping stores. Before you go, tell a friend where you are going and when you plan to be back.

nationalparks.nsw.gov.au/safety

Road safety

Drink driving is illegal in Australia. That means it's against the law to have more than a small amount of alcohol before you drive. Don't get in a car with a driver who's been drinking either; take a taxi or ride share instead. Find out more about alcohol and drug limits for drivers: rms.nsw.gov.au

Fire safety

Did you know every home in NSW must have smoke alarms? This goes for any property where people sleep, whether it's student accommodation, a private rental or a share house. The property owner needs to install the smoke alarms in your rented premises. As the tenant, it's up to you to replace the battery as needed. Remember, neither you nor the property owner are allowed to remove or tamper with the smoke alarm's operation!

fairtrading.nsw.gov.au/housing-and-property/renting/during-a-tenancy/health,-safety-and-security

fire.nsw.gov.au

Night safety

At night, travel with another person and walk in well-lit areas after dark, even if it makes your trip a little longer. Always be aware of your valuables like your mobile phone and laptop. If you feel threatened in any way, find the nearest shop or house and ask to call the police.

Taking public transport? Pick a well-lit area to wait for your train, bus or tram. Check the timetable to avoid a long wait. If you feel unsafe, pick a seat close to other passengers. You could also sit next to the guard's compartment on the train – it's marked with a blue light.

Managing your course

Here we answer some common questions about the technical or administrative aspects of your course.

HOW DO I CHANGE MY SUBJECTS AFTER I'VE ENROLLED IN THEM?

Once you have permission to change your subjects, you can add or drop pre-approved subjects on My Student Admin. Use your UTS student number and password to log in. myStudentAdmin.uts.edu.au

To add subjects that were not already approved on your study plan, submit an e-request online. The student centre will process your e-request and send you a reply directly.

uts.edu.au/current-students/managing-your-course/using-uts-systems/student-forms-apps-and-systems/erequest

The last day to withdraw from a subject without academic or financial penalty is called the census date.

The last day to add a subject is different to census date and varies among different university calendars.

If you drop subjects after these dates, the subject will appear as a fail on your academic transcript and you'll be charged the tuition fee.

The UTS Handbook has a comprehensive guide to important academic dates. Search 'principal dates' or 'academic year dates'. coursehandbook.uts.edu.au

WHAT DO I DO IF I AM FAILING A SUBJECT OR COURSE?

We have a formal process for identifying students at risk of failing. We do this after results are released at the end of each teaching session. If we think you may be at risk of failing, we'll reach out and put you in a support program to help you improve your academic performance. In exceptional circumstances you may be able to reduce your study load.

uts.edu.au/current-students/managing-your-course/classes-and-assessment/academic-progression

CAN I APPEAL A UNIVERSITY DECISION?

All UTS students have the right to appeal against certain administrative decisions taken by the university. If you feel you've been treated unfairly by UTS or UTS staff you can also lodge a complaint. If you're informed that we intend to cancel or suspend your enrolment, you have the right to appeal.

WHAT IF I HAVE FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES?

If you're having trouble managing your money, you can make an appointment with a financial assistance officer to discuss your options.

Don't forget:

- It's a requirement of your student visa that you have enough money to support yourself while in Australia.
- If you encounter financial difficulties, you may be able to arrange a fee payment extension*. Lodge a request through AskUTS as soon as possible. You'll need to provide supporting documentation.
- If you don't pay your tuition fees by the due date, your enrolment at UTS may be discontinued.

uts.edu.au/current-students/managing-your-course/ask-uts/ask-uts

* Not available to Study Abroad and Exchange students.

HOW DO I WITHDRAW FROM MY COURSE?

If you're thinking about discontinuing your studies at UTS, make sure you understand your options before making a final decision. Speak with our friendly advisors at the International Student Centre, the UTS Student Centre or the UTS Counselling Service.

If you still want to withdraw, you can do this online. Once you've withdrawn entirely from your course and you're no longer enrolled, we will report this to the Department of Home Affairs and you may be required to leave Australia.

You can only apply to withdraw from a course using the following link. Please note you cannot withdraw from your course by dropping your subjects within My Student Admin.

uts.edu.au/current-students/managing-your-course/your-enrolment/enrolment-changes/course-withdrawal

HOW CAN I REQUEST COPIES OF MY TRANSCRIPT?

Request additional copies of your academic transcript at the UTS Student Centre or online. Just complete the application form and allow a minimum of 3 working days for us to process your request. Administrative fees apply.

uts.edu.au/current-students/managing-your-course/your-student-info/student-or-alumni-records/academic-record

Your student visa

It's important that you're aware of your student visa requirements, and how they relate to studying at UTS and living in Australia. Stay on top of your visa requirements with these frequently asked questions.

WHAT ARE MY RIGHTS AS AN INTERNATIONAL STUDENT?

As an international student, you have certain rights and responsibilities, determined by the conditions of your student visa and by Australian government legislation.

uts.edu.au/current-students/info-international-students/your-rights-and-responsibilities

For information about student visa conditions, visit: homeaffairs.gov.au

CAN I TRANSFER TO ANOTHER INSTITUTION?

If you decide to leave UTS to pursue your studies at another institution within your first 6 months of enrolment, you'll need to apply for a release.

To apply for a release from UTS, you must complete the release application form provided on the UTS release protocol web page (see below) and submit it along with all required supporting documents, including an offer letter from your new education provider. We recommend you remain enrolled in your UTS course prior to approval of your release request.

Please note: We can't guarantee you will be given a release. Refer to our Release Protocol for more details. This is attached to your offer letter and also available at:*

uts.edu.au/future-students/international/essential-information/fees-information/uts-release-protocol

Don't let your OSHC expire!

Remember, as a condition of your student visa, it's your responsibility to maintain valid OSHC throughout your stay in Australia.

UTS is an approved participant in the Australian Government's Simplified Student Visa Framework (SSVF). We recruit students into our degree courses under the SSVF arrangements of the Department of Home Affairs. The SSVF is designed to make the process of applying for a student visa simpler for genuine students.

If you want to transfer courses, please note that under the SSVF you're expected to maintain enrolment at the same or higher level of Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) study. If you wish to transfer to a course that is at a lower AQF level, you'll need to apply for a new visa. For information on AQF, visit: aqf.edu.au

You must seek your own immigration advice on the SSVF and any proposed course and/or provider transfers as this action may impact your visa, up to and including cancellation. You must take this important information into account if considering a course change or a possible move to another provider. UTS does not give visa or immigration advice.

Visit Department of Home Affairs website at homeaffairs.gov.au for more information on the SSVF, the limits on changing your course/provider and how to meet the conditions of your student visa.

WHAT DOES MY OVERSEAS STUDENT HEALTH COVER (OSHC) INCLUDE?

OSHC covers general medical appointments and emergency medical attention through the public health system. It does not include physiotherapy, optical or dental care, the cost of admission to a private hospital, or non-emergency ambulance service. Extra insurance is available to cover these possible additional expenses.

HOW DO I GET MY OSHC MEMBERSHIP CARD?

If you have arranged Medibank OSHC, you will need to activate your membership online after you arrive in Australia. More information on OSHC will be provided at Orientation.

After you have arrived in Sydney and have a confirmed address, you can log in to the Medibank website to indicate where you would like your membership card to be posted.

HOW DO I RENEW MY OSHC?

To renew your Medibank OSHC in person, you will need your Medibank membership card, passport and a copy of your Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) that confirms you are continuing your studies at UTS. You can also extend your OSHC membership online with your credit card.

CAN I WORK WHILE I STUDY?

If you're a coursework student and you have a student visa, you can work up to 48 hours per fortnight during the main teaching sessions and unlimited hours during session breaks (excluding StuVac). Just remember that you can't start working until you have started your UTS course.

Please note: Unpaid work, including voluntary internships, counts towards your limit of 48 working hours per fortnight. Internships that are a compulsory component of your course are exempt from this limit.

If you are a research student please refer to your visa conditions for more information about work hour restrictions.

If you have any queries related to work rights, please contact the International Student Centre. The Department of Home Affairs website also provides useful information on working.

homeaffairs.gov.au

IF I WORK, DO I HAVE TO PAY TAX?

For tax purposes, international students are considered residents of Australia, so you will need to pay tax on money that you earn. You need to apply for a Tax File Number (TFN) to ensure you're taxed at the correct rate and the interest you earn on your bank savings is not taxed at the higher marginal rate.

If you're already in Australia, you can apply for a TFN online. You must have a valid passport or relevant travel documents. Your TFN will be mailed to you within a few weeks. When you receive it, you'll need to notify your employer and bank of your number.

FESTIVALS AND CULTURAL EVENTS

Sydney is a global city, with exciting festivals and entertainment throughout the year. From fireworks on New Year's Eve and Lunar New Year celebrations, to Mardi Gras, Vivid and the Sydney Film Festival, many of these events are free, or incorporate free activities. You can also go on walking tours of the city. Visit:

whatson.cityofsydney.nsw.gov.au

"The biggest benefit of UTS Startups is learning from people with different experiences. If you're sitting in the co-workspace and you're stuck on a problem related to marketing, for example, you can walk over to someone who has a company in marketing and ask them for advice. The support you get from the Startups team is amazing too. If there's something they can't answer, they'll go out of their way to bring in speakers who can teach us."

FAQs

For full-award international coursework students

You are a full-award international coursework student if you are studying your full degree at UTS, and are paying full tuition fees.

HOW DO I ENROL IN MY COURSE?

You should have received a pre-departure email containing your UTS student number and directing you to Start at UTS.

start.uts.edu.au

Please ensure that you activate your UTS email, enrol in your subjects online and, if you are in Australia, apply for your UTS ID card by following the instructions in the pre-arrival email. You must obtain your ID card before the enrolment deadline date and carry it with you at all times.

CAN I APPLY FOR RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING?

You can apply for exemptions for subjects you completed at another institution; however, they must be similar in content and depth to the subject at UTS. You'll need to submit an application for recognition of prior learning, together with certified copies of the subject outlines from your previous study to the UTS Student Centre as soon as possible. Your faculty will process your request.

uts.edu.au/current-students/managing-your-course/your-enrolment/recognition-prior-learning

CAN I CHANGE MY COURSE DURATION OR STUDY LOAD?

Under the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) legislative framework, you are expected to complete your course by the end date specified on your Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE). Your CoE end date is normally determined by the standard full-time duration of your course. For example, a UTS Bachelor of Business degree should be completed within 3 years. If you have been granted recognition of prior learning, your CoE duration may be shorter than the standard full-time duration.

In certain limited circumstances you can study less than the full-time load; however, you must obtain prior permission to do so. Visit the Permission to reduce study load page for information about how to apply:

uts.edu.au/current-students/managing-your-course/classes-and-assessment/academic-progression/international-student-requirements/permission-reduce-study-load

*Summer session is compulsory for students studying some courses. Check the UTS Handbook if you're unsure.

coursehandbook.uts.edu.au

CAN I STUDY ONLINE?

International students on student visas are required to study most of their subjects face-to-face, in line with the TEQSA return to compliance requirements that were introduced in July 2023.

This means that at least two thirds of your total study load must be on campus (face-to-face) each session. Where possible, select face-to-face subjects and subject activities so you don't break this rule.

uts.edu.au/current-students/managing-your-course/classes-and-assessment/academic-progression/international-student-requirements/studying-online-or-distance-mode-subjects

WHAT IF I NEED TO TAKE TIME OUT FROM MY STUDIES?

If you want to take temporary leave from your course you need to apply for a Leave of Absence (LoA). When applying for an LoA, remember:

- you can usually apply for up to 4 teaching sessions of LoA
- if you need to stay in Australia for your LoA period based on compassionate or compelling grounds, please email internationalstudent@uts.edu.au outlining your situation after you have been granted approval for LoA and our Student Advisor will consider your request
- if you take an LoA, your CoE may be cancelled and you may have to reapply for a new student visa offshore
- you are usually required to depart Australia during your period of leave
- talk to a student advisor at the International Student Centre before you apply for an LoA
- you must contact the International Student Centre for a new CoE once you are ready to resume your studies at UTS
- you can make an application for leave of absence online.
uts.edu.au/current-students/managing-your-course/your-enrolment/enrolment-changes/leave-absence-your-course

CAN I BE EXCLUDED FROM MY COURSE?

All UTS students are subject to academic progress requirements. Failure to meet these requirements can result in exclusion from your course. UTS is obliged by law to report all excluded students to the government, which can lead to visa cancellation.

If you overstay your visa, you can be subject to a 3-year exclusion from Australia. To help avoid this occurring it's extremely important that you are familiar with the academic progress requirements for your course and the relevant rules.

uts.edu.au/current-students/managing-your-course/classes-and-assessment/academic-progression

Credit points

To complete your course in the standard duration you normally need to be enrolled in 48 credit points over the academic year. This is usually 24 credit points in either Autumn or Spring session, although certain courses have non-standard loads, e.g. 18 or 32 credit points.

HOW DO I ENROL IN MY COURSE?

All new students must be on campus to enrol. If you hold a student visa that allows you to study for the full duration of the course and you are in Sydney, please visit the GRS office during business hours so we can assist you with enrolment. You will need to bring your passport with you.

 uts.ac/graduate-research

 grs@uts.edu.au

GRS provides general support to all UTS research degree students and supervisors. They can:

- assist with managing your candidature
- provide information on scholarships and funding
- help with personal development through research education programs and workshops
- provide support and administration during your degree.

Once you are formally enrolled as a research student, please attend the available welcome and orientation sessions and meet with your supervisor to develop your Graduate Research study plan.

UTS offers a range of academic, health and wellbeing services to support you throughout your research candidature. Please refer to the Graduate Research page for more information.

uts.edu.au/research-and-teaching/graduate-research

FACULTY CONTACTS

Faculty-specific contacts can also assist you throughout your research candidature at UTS.

- Research Administrator (RA) – your first point of contact for any queries or problems related directly to your candidature in the faculty.
- Supervision team – responsible for overseeing your research degree project throughout your candidature.
- Responsible Academic Officer (RAO) – oversees all of the faculty's research students.

uts.edu.au/research-and-teaching/graduate-research/contact-us

FUNDING FOR GRADUATE RESEARCH STUDENTS

Each year a number of funding opportunities are made available to research students by organisations outside of UTS. Applications must be made directly to the scholarship fund.

You can also apply for academic conference scholarships such as the Vice-Chancellor's Postgraduate Research Student Conference Fund, available twice per year.

FAQs

For study abroad and exchange students

You are a study abroad student if you are studying for one or two sessions at UTS, your studies are being credited to your home university and you are paying tuition fees to UTS.

You are an exchange student if you are studying for one or two sessions at UTS, your studies are being credited to your home university and you are paying tuition fees to your home university, not UTS.

DO I NEED TO ATTEND AN ENROLMENT SESSION?

As a study abroad or exchange student, you should already have enrolled online; therefore you do not need to attend an on-campus enrolment session in person.

AM I ENROLLED CORRECTLY?

You will gain access to enrol in your subjects before you commence at UTS. You should have received an admittance email from the Global Mobility Team (Inbound) with instructions. If you have any concerns, please contact the team.

studyabroad.exchange@uts.edu.au

WHAT IS THE GRADING SYSTEM AT UTS?

There are a range of different marking schemes at UTS depending on what subjects you enrol in. These include:

- grade (ranging between fail and high distinction) and a percentage mark
- grade only (no percentage mark)
- pass/fail with no grade or percentage mark.

The marking scheme for your subjects can be found in the individual subject outline that you receive at the start of each teaching session. If you are in doubt, check with your subject lecturer.

uts.edu.au/current-students/managing-your-course/classes-and-assessment/managing-your-study

CAN I GET A TRAVEL CONCESSION?

As a study abroad and exchange student, you are not entitled to travel concessions on public transport in New South Wales. You may still be entitled to a student concession at cinemas and theatres or other entertainment activities. You usually just need to show your UTS student card to obtain a discount.

WHEN DO I NEED TO PAY MY TUITION FEES? (STUDY ABROAD ONLY)

You will need to settle all outstanding fees before classes commence. You can request your tax invoice through My Student Admin and the fees office will send you a reminder of remaining outstanding fees at the census date. Note that changes to your enrolment and the total credit point value will change the amount of tuition fees you owe. Please contact the Global Mobility Team (Inbound) if you need further information.

HOW DO I GET MY RESULTS AND TRANSCRIPT?

Your results will be released on My Student Admin: myStudentAdmin.uts.edu.au

You will be able to print an unofficial copy of your assessment results from here.

An official UTS transcript will be issued for free via the digital My eEquals platform, which you can share with your home university.

You can also request additional copies of your transcript via My Student Admin. Find out how: uts.edu.au/current-students/managing-your-course/your-student-info/student-records/academic-record

There is a charge for additional copies.

DO I NEED A UTS STUDENT CARD?

All enrolled onshore students must have a current UTS student identity card, which will be issued during orientation. Your student identity card:

- must be carried at all times while on university premises
- may be required to be produced on demand by an employee of the university
- must be presented when borrowing books from the UTS Library, accessing the computer labs or to gain entry to examination rooms. For more information, visit:

A full-page photograph of three young women walking along a modern, elevated outdoor walkway. The walkway has a glass railing and a wooden handrail. The women are dressed in casual attire; one wears a grey top and black pants, another a dark shirt and jeans, and the third a grey top and blue jeans. They are walking towards the right, engaged in conversation. In the background, a city skyline is visible under a clear blue sky, with lush green trees in the foreground on the right. A large blue oval is superimposed on the upper left portion of the image, containing white text.

Enjoy your time at
