TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This letter is to confirm that students enrolled at UTS undertake their studies in accordance with the University's approved academic calendar.

Scheduled Vacation Periods for Coursework Students

The following vacation periods apply to students enrolled in coursework programs and are based on the University's approved academic calendars for 2026, with some vacation periods extending into 2027.

Calendar	Winter vacation period (June-July)	Summer vacation period (November – February)
Main Calendar	13 June 2026 – 26 July 2026	21 November 2026 – 14 February 2027
Calendar B	20 June 2026 – 26 July 2026	28 November 2026 – 14 February 2027
Calendar C	13 June 2026 – 26 July 2026	21 November 2026 – 14 February 2027
Calendar D	27 June 2026 – 19 July 2026	28 November 2026 – 14 February 2027

The dates listed above represent scheduled vacation periods within UTS's approved academic calendar.

During these vacation periods, students are generally not required to attend formal classes or compulsory academic activities unless otherwise specified in their course, timetable, assessment schedule, or study plan.

These vacation periods may affect a student's availability for employment or other commitments; however, individual circumstances may vary. Any work rights associated with scheduled course vacation periods are determined by the Australian Government and subject to the conditions attached to a student's visa. Students should refer to the Department of Home Affairs for current visa requirements and conditions.

Students are expected to resume their studies following each vacation period in accordance with their course requirements and academic timetable.

Yours sincerely,
