Project Method

Economic questionnaire 1

+

Government statistics regional economies NSW

→

Economic Model

→

Validation (including DPI catch + price data)

Social questionnaire 2 (fishermen + families)
Social questionnaire 3 (non-fishermen)

Document review (reports, media, etc)

Interviews + focus groups

Project Report (uses include negotiating with government)

Methodology for ongoing reporting (probably every 5 years)

Flyers for general audience with photos & personal stories

Promotion of Report & Flyers UTS and PFA websites, notifications to be sent to fishers (mail/ email/Facebook)
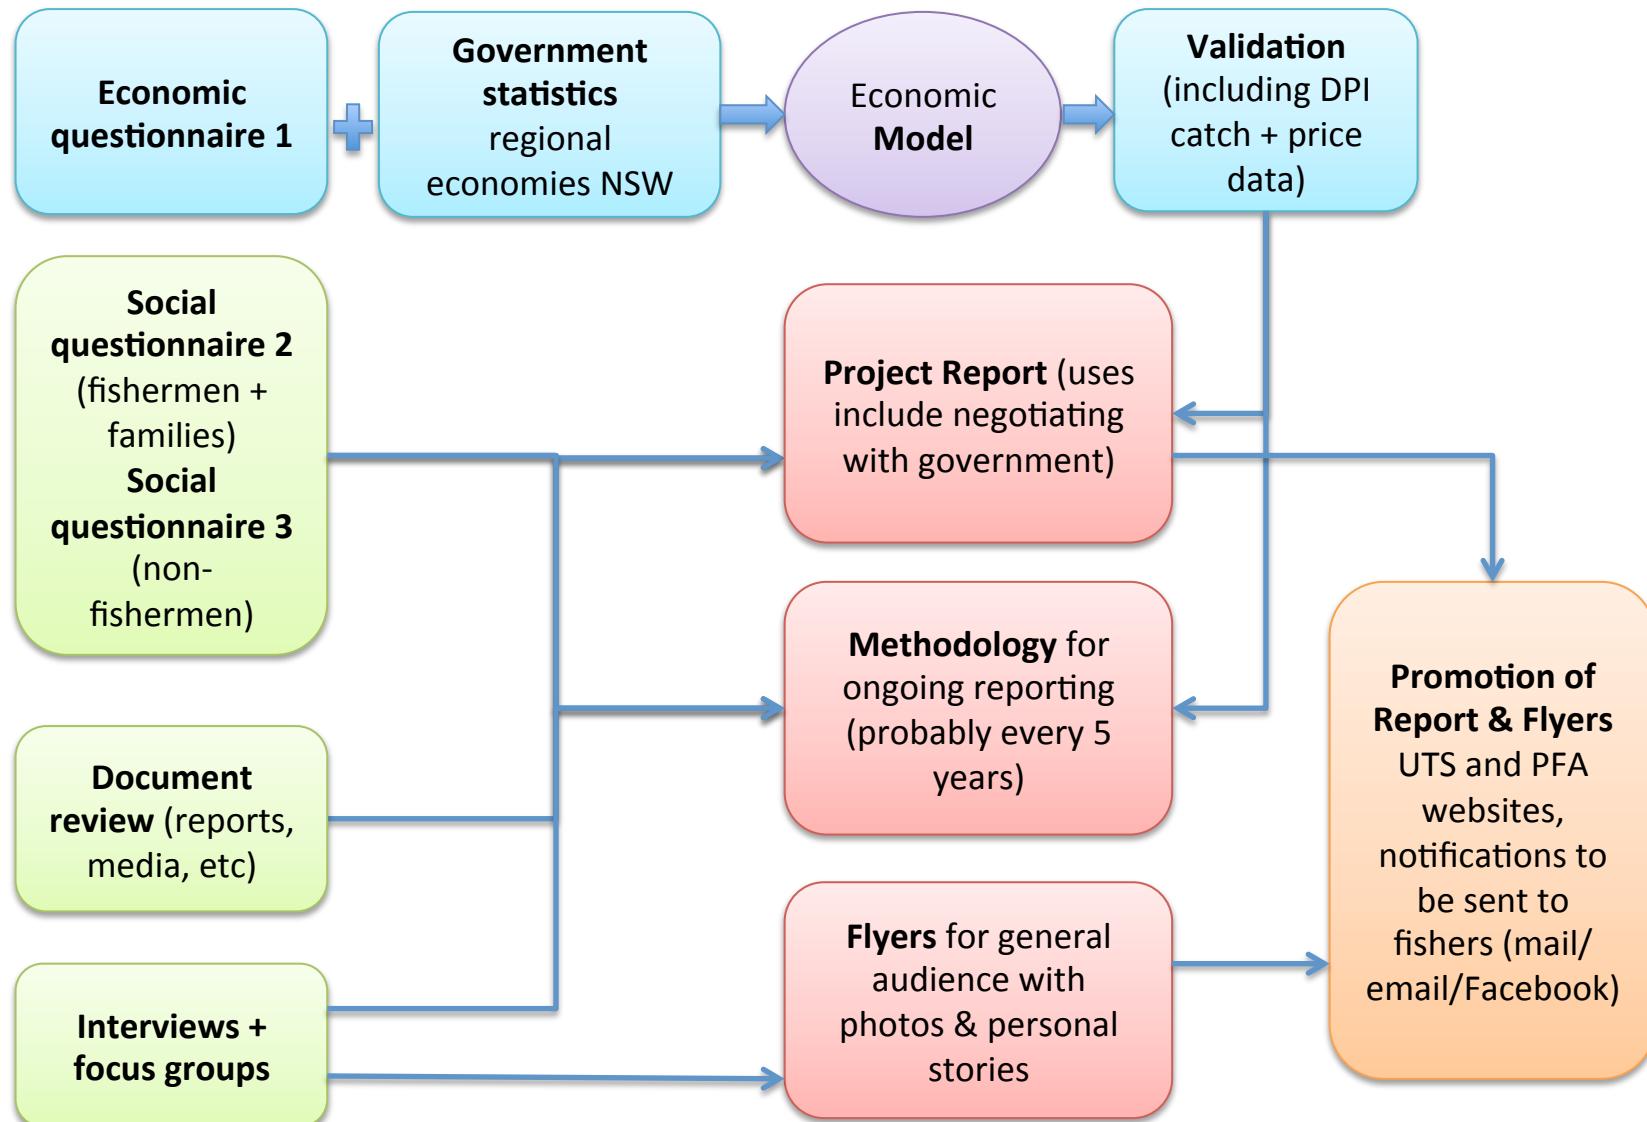

FRDC 2014/301 Valuing Coastal Fisheries

Project Organizational Relationships

FRDC

NSW FRAB

Seafood industry industry organizations, individual fishermen + families

UTS

UTS Ethics Committee

Project Steering Committee

Researchers
Kate Barclay & Michelle Voyer (UTS)
Alistair McIlgorm (UoW)
Nicki Mazur (EnV)
Danielle Ranshaw (WRI)

Role of Steering Committee
Review of draft questionnaires, report, flyers. Advice on engaging with industry. Encouraging industry to participate. No directing power over project.

SARC

The SARC Chair has been in contact with Kate Barclay to seek information about this project. Surveys and interviews will not be given to SARC.

NSW DPI

Project requires DPI contacts database and data for validation. No confidential information to be shared either direction.

FRDC 2014/301 Valuing Coastal Fisheries