Summer 2016

UNIVERSITY OF STUTTGART, GERMANY:

Winter University 2016

Universität Stuttgart

The University of Stuttgart is a world-class research university and part of Germany's TU9 leading German Institutes of Technology. Ranked as one of the best engineering universities in Germany, the university has a worldwide reputation for excellence in the fields of mobile and information technology, production, process engineering as well as in life sciences. Unique to the University is how they have combined these specialities with the humanities and social sciences.

The University of Stuttgart lies at the centre of one of the largest high-tech regions in Europe with global players such as Daimler and Bosch, innovative small and medium-sized enterprises, and renowned research institutions.

Stuttgart is the capital of Baden-Württemberg in South West Germany, and is an hour from the Black Forest and Swabian Jura mountains. Stuttgart's motto is "Das neue Herz Europas"- it is the new heart of Europe!
