

Study Abroad and Exchange at UTS: Law

As a Study Abroad or Exchange Student, you may design a program of subjects from more than one faculty at UTS, provided you enrol in 18-24 credit points of full-time study. Law subjects are either 6 or 8 credit points each.

In other faculties at UTS, subjects are offered at different credit point levels, so it is important to make sure that you satisfy the credit point requirements when choosing your subjects.

When can I study?

Study abroad and exchange is available:

- 1) March – July (Autumn Semester) A
- 2) July – November (Spring Semester) S

Please note:

- Autumn in Australia occurs in the first half of the year. Spring in occurs in the second half of the year
- Most Law subjects are offered in both sessions, except where indicated A or S however please check the timetable in case of a change
- Some subjects have prerequisites. If you apply for a subject with prerequisites, marked with an *(asterisk) you will need to demonstrate that you have the prior skills and knowledge necessary to undertake the subject. If you are enrolled in a law degree at your home university, these will be waived for the subjects on this list. If you are not enrolled in a law degree at you home university, you will satisfy pre-requisites by completing one of Options A-E in your first session.
- Undergraduate students are generally not permitted to study postgraduate subjects
