Bachelor of Sport and Exercise Science

"I like the tutorial-style classes because it feels more practical, even if you're discussing something theoretical. That's helped me a lot."

* Course duration is the standard number of sessions required for completion of the enrolled undergraduate program on the basis of a full-time study load, as specified in the letter of offer for admission to the course. The scholarship will be paid in two equal instalments of A$5,000 per session.
