

Master of Laws

Advance your legal career

The legal profession is changing, fast. At UTS Law, we respond to these changes by providing students with a legal education that is both vocationally and intellectually relevant.

The Master of Laws (LLM) is no different. It's intensive, inspiring and allows you to tailor the degree to your professional aspirations. We're also well connected – in location and contacts – our educators are industry-recognised leaders. Make your next career move – join us today!

AREAS OF SPECIALISATION

- Corporate and Commercial Law
- Dispute Resolution
- Intellectual Property

Tailor your degree to suit your career goals. You can undertake one or two majors or choose not to major in a particular area and instead choose eight subjects from a range of Postgraduate Law Options.

As part of this course, it is compulsory to complete the subject 78100 Postgraduate Legal Research.

If you are from a non-common law background, you are also required to enrol in the subject 78103 Common Law Legal Traditions in your first session of study.

Course Code C04143

Duration

1 year full-time or 2 years part-time

Admission Requirements

Applicants must hold a Bachelor of Laws or a Juris Doctor, or equivalent or higher qualification.

Completion of this qualification does not guarantee entry into this course. Offers are based upon academic merit and are made on a competitive basis. Generally students require a credit average (GPA 5/7) or above.

Master of Laws with Distinction

To qualify for the Master of Laws with Distinction, candidates must attain a minimum weighted average mark of 75 per cent across all subjects attempted.
