Acknowledgement of Country

UTS acknowledges the Gadigal People of the Eora Nation and the Boorooberongal People of the Dharug Nation upon whose ancestral lands our campuses stand. We would also like to pay respect to the Elders both past and present, acknowledging them as the traditional custodians of knowledge for these Lands.
Welcome to the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (FASS), home to three schools: Communication, Education and International Studies.

We aim to produce agile, forward-thinking graduates who can apply what they know in the real-world, and who can work creatively across a range of sectors. Whether it’s media and communication, society and culture, teacher education or linguistics, we challenge them – and ourselves – to think beyond traditional discipline boundaries.

Communication

Not all communication degrees are created equal. In the UTS School of Communication, we’re ahead of the curve.

We were one of the first schools of communication in Australia, so we’ve got the wisdom of experience behind us — more than 30 years of teaching expertise, led by some of the best in the field. But we’re also young, vibrant and dynamic. We’re shaped by the youth, agility, and entrepreneurial spirit that have come to define UTS.

Bachelor of Communication

With our Bachelor of Communication, you'll build the skills and expertise you need to pursue your dream career in the media and communication industries. Plus, you can tailor your degree to suit your career aspirations by choosing to specialise in up to two majors.

Our Bachelor of Communication is renowned for its hands-on approach to learning. Throughout your degree, you'll complete practical assessments that will ensure you graduate with a portfolio of work, ready for your first interview.

MAJORS
- Creative Writing
- Digital and Social Media
- Journalism
- Media Arts and Production
- Public Communication
- Social and Political Sciences

Second Major#
Broaden your skill set and open up more job opportunities with another specialisation. All students select a second Communication major once they begin the course. Examples include Journalism + Public Communication or Media Arts and Production + Creative Writing. Please note, Media Arts and Production is not available as a second major.

CORE SUBJECTS
- Citizenship and Communication
- Digital Literacies
- Communicating Difference

COURSE STRUCTURE
3 Core Subjects + 3 Elective Subjects + 6 First Major Subjects + 6 Second Major Subjects/Electives

#Note: In order to continue with your second major, in Year 1 of the Bachelor of Communication you'll need to have successfully completed a minimum of 24 credit points (3 subjects) internally at UTS (including one subject from your second major stream), and have achieved a Grade Point Average (GPA) of at least 2.75 or above. Students who do not meet the minimum GPA complete elective subjects instead.

Beth Shea
Graduate, Digital and Editorial Coordinator at Universal Media Company

“UTS got us to practically apply what we were learning in every lesson, which really helped me to improve my writing across a range of styles that was invaluable for getting my job at Universal Media. The final two courses in my third year focused on getting us to create a writing portfolio, which I found to be a great resource to showcase to future employers.”
Bachelor of Communication (Creative Writing)

Focusing on both creative process and creative output across all forms of writing, this degree combines the core elements of writing technique with industry practice, critical thinking and collaborative learning. Taught by a team of experienced writers, publishers, scholars and industry professionals, this course will prepare you for a wide range of careers and opportunities, from writing and editing, to story developing and world building, to teaching and researching...to a multitude of other industries where writing and communicating lie at the heart of the role.

CAREERS

Gilbert Johnston
Student

“The best thing about Creative Writing at UTS is the practicality of the course. I’m constantly workshopping with my peers and improving my work in a practical sense. My favourite subject so far has been ‘Genre Writing’. In this subject, I was exposed to an incredible wealth of literature and given the opportunity to curate a 3000-word creative piece in a genre of my choosing.”
Bachelor of Communication (Digital and Social Media)

This specialised communication degree will prepare you to enter a media industry that is increasingly reliant on digital technology. Grow your technical skills across a diverse range of platforms and environments; develop your creative and analytical skills; and prepare for leadership roles across the digital economy.

- Add a second major to your degree. Options include Journalism, Social & Political Sciences, Public Communication or Creative Writing.

COURSE STRUCTURE
3 Core Communication Subjects + 6 Digital and Social Media Subjects + 3 Cross-disciplinary Electives + 6 Second major subjects/Electives

“What inspired me to pick the Digital & Social Media course at UTS was the fact that this course was so reactive to the changed media environment. No course at any other Australian university at the time was current enough to offer students a course that was really trying to keep up with modern-day issues. Specifically, the evolution of digital media and the impact of social media today.”

Samantha Packham
Graduate, Account Executive at MercerBell.
Bachelor of Communication (Journalism)

Immerse yourself in the intellectual, ethical and political foundations of journalism and gain an understanding of the role journalists play in giving voice to different communities and individuals. Build your technical skills and apply what you know to produce print, audio, video or social media stories that can change the world, or create innovative multiplatform journalism for digital media.

CAREERS
Reporters, producers, publishers, editors and sub-editors, feature and freelance writers, investigative journalists, media researchers and strategists.

SAMPLE SUBJECTS
- Stories from the Streets: Local Journalism, Social Media
- Live Action: Multiplatform Journalism
- Digging Deeper: Current Affairs and Longer-form Journalism
- From Dirty Data to Vivid Visualisation
- The Hive: Collaborative Journalism
- Industry Portfolio

WHY JOURNALISM AT UTS?
- Study in one of the most respected journalism programs in the country
- Build a portfolio by publishing your work in a range of UTS media outlets including Vertigo, the UTS student paper; Central News – UTS Journalism’s news website; 2SER-FM Radio, and more.
- Take advantage of work experience and internship opportunities through our extensive links with media organisations.
- Produce stories using our exclusive facilities and equipment, including sound and film editing suites, radio and television studios and our dedicated journalism lab.
- Add a second major to your degree. Options include Digital & Social Media, Social & Political Sciences, Public Communication or Creative Writing.

COURSE STRUCTURE
3 Core Communication Subjects + 6 Journalism Subjects + 3 Cross-disciplinary Electives + 6 Second major subjects/Electives

Isha Bassi
Graduate, Junior Staff Writer at BuzzFeed

“Choosing to study at UTS was one of the best decisions I have ever made. Throughout my three years, I had an incredible range of opportunities to refine my reporting and writing skills. Whether that was through practical assignments like News Day, submitting a story for Vertigo (the student magazine), or having lectures from industry professionals, there was always something available to help you become the best journalist you could be.”
Bachelor of Communication (Media Arts and Production)

This degree will give you a broad and deep exposure to, and experience in media and culture, so you'll understand how your work fits into the wider creative media landscape. Your skills will evolve through projects within the course, and you'll be able to showcase your big ideas across screen, sound and interactive media. At the end of the course, you'll have a professional portfolio, a solid grounding in the use of industry software and equipment, and the ability to conceptualise, produce and deliver engaging stories across multiple genres, platforms and media.

COURSE STRUCTURE
3 Core Communication Subjects + 6 Media Arts and Production Subjects + 3 Cross-disciplinary Electives + 6 Second major subjects/Electives

Daniel Snell
Student

“The best thing about studying Media Arts and Production at UTS is the practical assessments that have helped to build my portfolio. I have finished every semester with at least 2 or 3 pieces of work that I have been able to add to a professional portfolio for employment when I graduate.”
Bachelor of Communication (Public Communication)

You’ll explore communication across cultural, social and political contexts, and develop knowledge and skills in public communication to equip you for a career in public relations, advertising, or corporate or government communication. Think campaign design and production, copywriting, media liaison and writing, research and evaluation, and organisational communication management. You will also graduate with a professional portfolio to show prospective employers at your first interview.

STREAMS
– Public Relations
– Advertising

SAMPLE SUBJECTS
– The Ecology of Public Communication
– Integrated Communication
– Brand Advertising Strategies
– Professional Advertising Practice
– Strategic Public Relations
– Media Writing Production

WHY PUBLIC COMMUNICATION AT UTS?
– The Public Communication major is accredited by the Public Relations Institute of Australia (PRIA).
– Our team is made up of highly accomplished academics and industry practitioners with extensive professional communication experience.
– Respond to briefs from real clients and case studies and actively engage with industry throughout your degree.
– Undertake internships and participate in industry competitions.
– Add a second major to your degree. Options include Journalism, Social & Political Sciences, Digital & Social Media or Creative Writing.

COURSE STRUCTURE
3 Core Communication Subjects + 2 Public Communication Subjects + 4 Advertising or Public Relations Subjects + 3 Cross-disciplinary Electives + 6 Second Major Subjects/Electives

Clayton McKinnon
Student

“The capstone Public Communication subject, Integrated Communication, was a particularly useful subject. It combines both streams of the Public Communication major (Advertising and Public Relations) into groups to respond to briefs from real clients. Having an actual client not only gave us a tangible and invested point of reference for our brief but also motivated us much more than usual assignments to deliver high-quality and well-rounded products. This opportunity was second to none in preparing me for industry.”
Bachelor of Communication (Social and Political Sciences)

Ask the big questions with a social and political sciences degree that’s a cut above the rest. This course offers a dynamic combination of social science analysis, communication studies and research skills that spans politics, cultural history, international studies, sociology, political economy and social policy. You will undertake professional studies and hands-on social research which includes project work with an external organisation, offering you real-world experience in advocacy and policy communication.

CAREERS
Social, policy and media researchers, policy analysts, investigative reporters, project managers in social services and welfare, advocacy, communications and campaign roles in environmental, human rights and overseas development organisations, and in trade unions.

SAMPLE SUBJECTS
- Self and Society
- Politics, Ideologies and Beliefs
- Economy, Society and Globalism
- Investigating for Change
- Intervening for Change
- Professional Pathways Project

WHY SOCIAL & POLITICAL SCIENCES AT UTS?
- Take up a professional placement with a community group, public sector organisation, or corporation. NSW parliamentary internships and research fieldtrips are also available.
- Our highly accomplished academics and industry practitioners will inject your theoretical learning with practical activities.
- Participate in a test case in a real-world organisation, such as a political party, religious institution or advocacy group, and see firsthand how these institutions promote ideas in society.
- Engage with UTS-led community ventures and start driving meaningful social change long before you graduate.
- Add a second major to your degree. Options include Journalism, Digital & Social Media, Public Communication or Creative Writing.

COURSE STRUCTURE
3 Core Communication Subjects + 6 Social and Political Sciences Subjects + 3 Cross-disciplinary Electives + 6 Second Major Subjects/Electives

“Studying Social and Political Science at UTS has been a really enriching and enjoyable experience. A highlight of this degree was a recent opportunity I had to complete a project with the NSW Council for Civil Liberties, where I undertook independent research and prepared a paper on Juvenile Incarceration in Australia. This project has been extremely useful for me as I have been able to use it on a number of job applications within the Communication industry.”

- Issues in Education: Local and Global Contexts
- Digital Learning Futures
Education Facilities

Second to none – that’s how we describe our purpose-built facilities in the School of Education. From customised science, music, dance and visual arts teaching environments to informal study and collaborative hubs, all of our spaces are designed to shape your education practice.

Our fully equipped art studios facilitate creative learning in different forms of visual arts. From painting and ceramics to digital art, you’ll learn how to bring creativity into the classroom.

Our science lab simulates a range of equipment and materials that are used in schools. In this lab, you’ll not only learn and practice the principles of teaching science, but you’ll also get to conduct some fun experiments.

Our experimental learning studio is a flexible teaching space that allows you to learn and practice teaching in an unconventional environment. You can explore creative teaching methods using our interactive boards, VR sets, a green screen and more.
Bachelor of Arts Bachelor of Education (Primary)

As a Primary Education student, you can pursue a specialisation in either English, Mathematics, Languages, Science and Technology and Creative Arts. The specialisation means that you will have more in-depth knowledge of a subject area, and be valuable to a school as someone with specialist expertise.

“My favourite practicum, so far, was in my first year. In this practicum we were able to visit our allocated school once a week for eight weeks in the first semester for observations, and then in the second semester we revisited that same class to complete a three-week block practicum. We were able to begin teaching in this time, which I felt well prepared for; since I’d already been in that class before.

The UTS Education course design allows for all students to build confidence and be prepared for teaching in the second semester of first year, and through these multiple visits spanning over a long period of time, I was able to get to know the students and school really well.”

“I have had so much fun undertaking this degree. From the wonderful supportive staff that I don’t believe you could find at any other uni, to the amazing support from other students in the cohort. The practicals really make this degree stand out against others. As good as you may be at theory and assignments, nothing will prepare you more for your career after university than your own first-hand experience in schools.”

Bachelor of Global Studies

The Bachelor of Global Studies is a professionally-oriented and versatile social science degree. It engages students in critical thinking and complex problem solving regarding pertinent economic, political and social issues facing our societies today. Students study core subjects that allow them to examine how globalised economies, institutions and cultures operate, along with a directed professional major equipping them with knowledge and skills in either Business, Management, Communication, Legal or Health Studies.

CAREERS
Your chosen professional major can lead to careers in government policy and planning, local or international NGOs, social research, consultancy and legal firms, social enterprise, human resources, marketing, tech start-ups, or multinational companies.

SPECIALISATIONS (MAJORS)
- Health studies
- Business studies
- Management studies
- Communication studies
- Legal studies

SAMPLE SUBJECTS
- Global Governance
- Global Work Project
- Global Problem Solving
- Globalisation in Historical Perspective
- Contemporary Global Economy
- Cultures of Globalisation

WHY GLOBAL STUDIES AT UTS?
Internationalisation, social impact, mobility and employability are priorities.
- Study abroad or undertake a short-term international work placement or study a language – gain an international outlook that sets you apart.
- Choose an embedded major and build specialist skills in your chosen area of professional practice.
- Develop transferable skills that are highly sought after in a range of work environments – intercultural communication, team work, creative and critical enquiry, problem solving.
- Engaging with real-world organisations, industry experts and local communities, students complete a domestic or international internship, and have the opportunity to study a session overseas.

COURSE STRUCTURE
6 Core Subjects + 6 or 8 Major Subjects + 6 Sub-major, exchange, elective subjects

Benjamin Blackshaw
Graduate, Editorial & Research Assistant at the International Centre for Democratic Partnerships

“Global Studies allows you to learn a language, study abroad on exchange, and complete an internship. These opportunities in the degree make you stand out as a workplace-ready graduate with international experience.”
14 countries, over 100 institutions

#utsics
The first university in Australia to offer International Studies as part of a combined degree

As a Bachelor of Arts in International Studies student you won’t just be learning about the world from afar – you’ll also spend the fourth year of your program studying overseas. Here’s a taste of our students’ experiences!

SAMPLE SUBJECTS

– Language and Culture: Study Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese or Spanish to prepare you for travel, study and living in your country major.
– Foundations in International Studies: Explore key concepts, including Indigenous knowledges, transculturation, empires, nations, borders. Case studies on language, food, music and sport introduce you to the International Studies approach.
– Contemporary Society Studies: Learn more about your chosen major through studies of history, politics, society and culture in national, continental and global contexts. A focus on critical skills will prepare you for your In-Country Study project.
– In-Country Study: spend two sessions studying overseas at a UTS partner institution. Dig deeper by completing a major research project with the help of a specialist UTS academic. Individualise your study by choosing a project that can value-add in your professional portfolio.

WHY INTERNATIONAL STUDIES AT UTS?

– The BAIS model provides you with one-on-one academic support to develop your skills in project planning, research, analysis and writing
– Our extensive international partnerships provide a unique opportunity for study and travel that’s underpinned by academic, logistic and cultural support
– Learn a new language and develop intercultural skills
– Hone in-demand soft skills like resilience, problem-solving and adaptability for your future employment
– Take advantage of your university breaks overseas to travel, volunteer or gain experience through an international internship.

There’s no better way to prepare for the global workforce than to experience the world while you study. This combined degree allows you to spend a year in another country and earn course credit along the way. UTS has many degree combinations to choose from. You’ll build professional skills from your core degree, study a language and develop your intercultural skills, then put them to use overseas to complete an independent project. Plus, you’ll graduate with key soft skills like independence, resilience and project management, which are all highly sought after by employers.

UTS provides financial support for all International Studies students, including:

– Return airfare
– Visa processing
– Insurance

Scholarships, overseas study loans and government payments are also available to eligible students.

Prepare for the career you want – where you want – with our 29 unique degree combinations, 14 country majors and 6 languages.

“...The beginning of November in Mexico offers one of the country’s most unique celebrations, The Day of The Dead. Living in Puerto Vallarta I could have stayed there, but when you have to chance to experience a cultural event like this, you need to go for the source. I was also lucky enough to be joined by three ICS friends, two studying in Costa Rica and one in Colombia. This was my chance to be the guide, to give them the proper introduction to Mexico. It is a truly magnificent feeling to proudly show people the slice of heaven you’ve found in the world.”

Mitchell Orme

“I’ve hit the nine-month mark of my ICS exchange and it’s time to begin my final semester here in Montpellier. This month, I had to click restart - I’m living with new roommates, a majority of the friends I had made last semester have left since they had completed their exchange and I’m no longer sheltered by language-supported subjects and have to take integrated classes instead.

It may feel like all these changes are overwhelming and stressful at first but I’ve come to realise that it’s these changes that have helped me become more independent and grow throughout the year. It’s also forced me to take risks that have rewarded me with lessons and opportunities that I’ll carry with me beyond my time here on exchange.”

Diploma in Languages

Gain language and intercultural skills, build your professional identity, and graduate with a range of capabilities that’ll prepare you for an international career. With this additional qualification, you’ll open the door to your global future.

2019 Selection rank: N/A
Duration: 3 years part-time
Concurrent study option
Delivery: Face-to-face

STUDY PATTERN
This diploma may be taken concurrently with your UTS degree. You’ll study one Diploma in Languages subject per session. For most UTS students, this will mean that enrolling in the Diploma will increase your load from 24cp per session (the standard full-time load for undergraduates) to 32cp per session. Overseas intensive study opportunities may also be available in July or Summer sessions.

LANGUAGE AND CULTURE SUBJECTS
You’ll study language and culture subjects, completing one subject per session over a total of six sessions. You’ll build capabilities in listening, speaking, reading and writing – and you’ll also explore the popular culture, cultural practices and current affairs related to your chosen region. When it comes to class allocation, you’ll be grouped according to your level of proficiency. No previous experiences in your chosen language? No problem – we’ve got classes to suit all levels.

WHY A DIPLOMA IN LANGUAGES AT UTS?
– Develop writing and speaking skills in at least one language other than English
– You’ll gain an international perspective and a global world view
– You’ll be ready to succeed in a range of international environments, and to embrace globalised work opportunities

ADMISSION AND APPLICATION
– This course is offered on a three-year, part-time basis and must be taken concurrently with an undergraduate or postgraduate coursework degree program at UTS. Students with no prior language knowledge must commence in Autumn session.
– Once enrolled in a program at UTS, students can apply online for the Diploma of Languages via My Student Admin.

“Studying another language opens so many doors no matter what course you’re studying. With Business especially, it means I am able to work for a Japanese company or even work in Japan. What I’ve enjoyed most about the diploma is the challenge, as well as the friendships I’ve made along the way. The variety of tasks we are given, as well as the teaching style, makes it really enjoyable too.”
Combined Degrees

Bachelor of Laws

Duration: 5 years full-time
Available with: Bachelor of Communication
A dual qualification that lets you specialise in two professional areas. The combination of communication expertise with legal qualifications will give you skills that are highly sought after by a wide range of employers. Apply your legal know-how to professional roles across the media, communication and social science sectors, or use your communication skills as a launching pad for your legal career. This course meets the academic requirements for admission as a lawyer in New South Wales, and you can complete Practical Legal Training (also on offer at UTS) if you’re seeking full recognition as a graduate lawyer.

Bachelor of Creative Intelligence and Innovation (BCII)

Duration: 4 years full-time
Available with: Bachelor of Communication
The BCII is all about critical and creative thinking, problem-solving, invention, complexity, innovation, future scenario building and entrepreneurship to give you a cutting-edge advantage in your future workplace. You’ll engage with authentic live industry, government and community challenges within the classroom and beyond. BCII students have previously worked on challenges to tackle the future of digital transactions and global payments for Visa; future smart cities with Accenture; alcohol fuelled violence in their city with the City of Sydney and other projects with Google, the Royal Australian Air Force, PwC, Commonwealth Bank, NSW Health, and SBS.

Bachelor of Arts in International Studies

Duration: Adds 1-2 years to professional degree
Available with: 29 UTS course offerings
The first university in Australia to offer International Studies as part of a combined degree. As a Bachelor of Arts in International Studies student you won’t just be learning about the world from afar – you’ll also spend the fourth year of your program studying overseas.

Diploma in Languages

Duration: 3 years part-time, completed concurrently alongside professional degree
Available with: any undergraduate or postgraduate UTS degree
See page 40.

Diploma in Innovation

Duration: 3 years part-time, completed concurrently alongside professional degree
Available with: any UTS bachelor’s degree (excluding the BTi or BCII)
For the innovators, entrepreneurs, creative thinkers and digital disrupters among you, come face-to-face with open, complex and networked problems. Subjects include extensive studios on innovation and entrepreneurship, explorations of complexity and sustainability, and deep dives into concepts of frame innovation and futures thinking. What’s more, all your diploma subjects will be offered as winter and summer school intensives, so even though you’re adding an extra qualification, you’ll still graduate on time.
International Opportunities

Expand upon your studies and broaden your horizons with one of our international opportunities.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENT STUDY TOUR
The Foreign Correspondent Study Tour (FCST) allows undergraduate and postgraduate journalism students to travel overseas and experience what it takes to be an international reporter, plus have it credited towards their course. Previous trips have included India, Jordan and the Philippines.

INTERNATIONAL INTENSIVE ELECTIVES
All International Intensive Electives are completed during the Summer or July session – so the travel won’t interrupt the rest of your studies.

- International Internship: complete internships, social entrepreneurship or practicum programs in international locations that have previously included Cambodia, Costa Rica, India, Japan and Vietnam.
- In-country Contemporary Society Study: A 3-4-week program delivered in-country and taught in English. International opportunities previously have included programs in China, Costa Rica, France, Germany, Japan and Peru.
- In-country Language and Culture Study: An intensive short-term program at one of UTS’ partner institutions worldwide. Programs in the past have been conducted in China, Germany, Italy, Mexico and Switzerland.

BUILD ABROAD
Our modern world calls for global citizens to face global challenges. Experiencing different cultures and cultivating new perspectives is set to provide you with a deep range of skills that will allow you to thrive in the future.

Each university session break, in collaboration with its international partners, the BUILD team offers short-term overseas programs that will broaden your horizons, including:

- Summer/Winter schools at partner universities
- Experiential learning programs
- International Internships

UTS GLOBAL EXCHANGE
The UTS Global Exchange program allows you to study overseas for one or two teaching sessions at a UTS partner university. With over 240 exchange partners in over 40 countries and territories, UTS has one of the largest international exchange programs in Australia.

Scholarships

At UTS, we're all about rewarding effort – and supporting circumstance. That’s why we offer more than $12 million in UTS coursework scholarships and prizes every year. If you're a high achiever, in financial need, or if you're from a diverse background, a UTS scholarship can help take care of your finances so you can focus on the important stuff.

Scholarships for high achievers
Academic achievement is worth celebrating – and our high achievers’ scholarships do just that. Some scholarships are awarded across all UTS undergraduate degrees (e.g. the UTS Vice Chancellor’s Outstanding Achievement Scholarship, valued at $12,500 per year for the duration of the course), while other scholarships are offered through our faculties (e.g. the UTS Business Dean’s Scholarship, valued at $30,000).

Equity scholarships
Our equity scholarships aim to overcome financial disadvantage in whatever form it takes. Whether you have a disability or ongoing medical condition, a rural home address, a refugee background or carer’s responsibilities, these scholarships can help make university study possible.

Scholarships for Indigenous Australians
We’re committed to offering scholarships and prizes to support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students. Some of these are awarded on academic merit while others are equity-based.

Scholarships for athletes
You’ve given your life to your sport – now let your sport give something to you. ActivateUTS assists students to combine high-performance sport with their studies, so you’ll be supported to excel in both areas. They offer three scholarships: the Elite Athlete Program, Emerging Athlete Program and Elite Athlete Housing Scholarship.

We also offer a few other scholarships for athletes to assist you in pursuing your academic and sporting goals.

Application dates
Scholarship application dates vary. Be sure to check the UTS scholarship website for specific closing dates.

Which scholarship is right for me?
With so many scholarships on offer, it can be tricky to figure out which ones you’re eligible for. Use our online search tool to filter scholarships according to the criteria that best describes you.
Fees and financial assistance

Uni fees can be confusing – how much you pay depends on the uni you choose, the course you study and the subjects you enrol in. Here’s a quick guide to student fees at UTS.

Domestic students

As a domestic student, you’ll most likely be studying in a Commonwealth Supported Place. This means the Australian Government makes a contribution to the cost of your study, while you pay a student contribution.

- Student contribution
  The Australian Government has classified each unit of study into various bands depending on the study area. Your student contribution is calculated based on the subjects you enrol in each session.

- HECS-HELP
  Most domestic students pay their student contribution through the HECS-HELP scheme. This means the government lends you the money for your student contribution and pays it directly to the university. HECS-HELP is available to Australian citizens, students on humanitarian visas and holders of a New Zealand SCV that meets the long-term residency requirements (note that if you’re a New Zealand citizen and do not meet eligibility requirements, or if you hold an ordinary permanent resident visa, you’ll need to pay your fees upfront). You’ll start repaying your HECS-HELP loan after graduation, once your income reaches the repayment threshold.

Don’t want to incur a HECS-HELP debt? You can pay your student contribution up front every session – just make sure you pay it by the due date.

For more information on HECS-HELP, visit the StudyAssist website.

International students

This guide is not intended for international students. For information on fees for international students, visit the UTS International website.

UTS financial assistance

Uni life can be a bit of a juggle, so if you’re struggling with your finances, the Financial Assistance Service can help. Our team assists with the practical and financial aspects of life at university, including information on the Centrelink Student Support benefits, government HECS and FEE-HELP tuition loans, help with planning your budget to survive uni on your income, providing support such as nil-interest short-term UTS student loans and help with completing PAYG annual income tax returns. They also support equity-based programs, grants and scholarships to help low-income domestic students in financial need. This funding can help you meet the costs of your classroom resources, like textbooks and laptops, or add-on costs that result from internships and workplace practical experience requirements.

Government income support

If you’re an Australian citizen or permanent resident, you may be eligible for a Centrelink benefit. Visit the Department of Human Services website for more information.
Applying to UTS

It’s time! Join the innovation generation as a student at UTS.

Here’s how:

1. Find a course
   Choosing what to study is a big decision. Start by checking out the course information pages of this guide (pages 6 – 39), as well as the UTS website.

   uts.edu.au/find-right-ug-course

2. Check your admission requirements
   Once you’ve chosen a course, check that you meet the admission requirements.

   High school leavers:
   If you’re completing your HSC (or equivalent) in 2019, we’ll assess your application based on your selection rank for entry into most UTS courses. Your selection rank is a combination of your ATAR/IB score, plus any adjustment points you receive (read more about adjustment points on page 48).

   Mature age and non-current school leavers:
   If you’re not a high school leaver, you’ll be assessed on criteria such as your ATAR, post-school qualifications, or relevant work experience, along with any additional selection criteria.

   Indigenous students:
   If you’re an Australian Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander, the Jumbunna Institute for Indigenous Education and Research can help you get in to UTS through the Jumbunna Pathways Program (see page 48) or Unistart Program (see page 49).

   uts.edu.au/unistart

   International students:
   This guide is not intended for international students. If you’re an international student looking for course and application information, please use the UTS International website and course guide.

   If you’re not a citizen or permanent resident of Australia, or a citizen of New Zealand, you must apply as an international student directly through UTS International.

   Tel: 1800 774 816 (free call within Australia)
   Tel: +61 3 9627 4816 (for international calls)

   international.uts.edu.au

   Check if you’re eligible for scholarships:
   When? Scholarship applications open as early as April 2019. See what’s on offer and check your eligibility on our website.

   uts.edu.au/scholarships

   Check if you’re eligible for admission schemes:
   There’s more than one way to get into uni. We offer a range of admission schemes that can help get you into the course you want. See page 48 for a list of schemes.
3 Visit UTS
Come and say hello at one of our events or faculty info sessions – it’s a great way to get to know UTS. And don’t miss UTS Open Day (Saturday 31 August 2019), the biggest day on campus, where you’ll have the chance to explore your course and career options.

undergraduate.uts.edu.au/events
openday.uts.edu.au

4 Apply through UAC
Applications for most UTS undergraduate courses must be lodged online through the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC). On-time applications close at the end of September 2019*. Be sure to have your UTS preferred course as your first preference.

Application information is available in the UAC Guide and on the UAC website. If you’re a Year 12 student, you can obtain a free copy of the guide from your school. Some courses have additional selection criteria, so you may need to submit extra material to UTS in addition to your UAC application. Check out the UTS Handbook for more information about applying for your chosen course.

uac.edu.au
handbook.uts.edu.au

5 Review your options

Are you eligible for subject points?

Once your results are released, visit our Year 12 Subject Scheme table with your performance bands in hand to see if you’re eligible for an adjustment of up to five points towards your selection rank. These subject points are in addition to any points you may receive from one of our other admission schemes.

6 Accept your offer

The majority of our offers are released during December Round 2 via UAC on 23 December 2019*. Check the UAC website for offer round dates.

Offers will be made to eligible IB students in January following the release of your results.

uac.edu.au

7 Build on your degree

Consider adding a Diploma in Languages, Diploma of Innovation or enrolling in the Academic English Program*.

*For high school leavers only.
*Correct at the time of printing. Visit uac.edu.au

1 The Academic English Program is one subject studied concurrently with your degree to develop your English skills for use in a university context. Existing English proficiency is measured by the Online Post Enrolment English Language Assessment (OPELA) screening tool. Band 1 OPELA results: Receive individual advice from UTS about enrolment. Band 2+ OPELA results: Submit an e-request to mystudent.uts.edu.au and attach evidence of an academic recommendation to study the subject.
Admission schemes

Boost your chances of receiving an offer from UTS with one of our admission schemes. When we assess your application, we'll consider criteria beyond your ATAR, such as your academic performance in certain HSC subjects, disadvantageous circumstances you may have experienced, or your identification as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander.

Please note: you'll need to submit an application if you want to be considered for the admission schemes listed below. Only the Year 12 Subject Scheme and the equity-funded school concession points are automatically assessed.

Year 12 Subject Scheme (adjustment points)
If you’re a current high school student (both HSC and IB), you’ll be automatically assessed for this scheme. The Year 12 Subject Scheme awards additional points (called adjustment points) towards your selection rank based on your performance in high school subjects that are relevant to your chosen course.

inpUTS-Educational Access Scheme
If you’ve experienced long-term educational disadvantage as a result of family, personal or financial circumstances, you can apply for inpUTS, our Educational Access Scheme (EAS). If you’re eligible for inpUTS, you’ll be considered for a place at UTS, even if your selection rank is up to 10 points below the cut-off for your preferred course.

Elite Athletes and Performers Special Admissions Scheme
If you’re an elite athlete or performer and your commitments outside school have impacted on your studies, you can apply for our Elite Athlete and Performers Scheme. This scheme can give you five additional adjustments points towards your selection rank.

Jumbunna Pathways Program
Available to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students who aspire to study at university, and may not otherwise have the qualifications to apply. Your application will be assessed based on factors including previous life skills and experience, education and work experience. Applications are direct to Jumbunna.

Visit our website to see a full list of our admission schemes.

Admission pathways

Admission pathways are alternative ways to get into your preferred course if you don’t receive the ATAR you need. UTS pathways include TAFE courses, diplomas and other formal qualifications that can get you back on track.

Enrol in a related course
Start by choosing a different UTS course – ideally, pick one with a lower ATAR that’s still similar to the course you want (hint: some combined degrees have a lower cut-off than a single degree).

Then, think about the following options:

- Use your electives to get a great degree experience
  With electives, you can enrol in subjects that interest you from almost any UTS faculty – so you can still study what you’re passionate about, no matter which degree you’re in.

- Re-apply after a year
  Once you’ve completed a year of full-time study at UTS or another institution, you can apply to your preferred course via UAC. We’ll assess both your ATAR and the marks you earn in your first-year subjects. Make sure you study hard – it’s a competitive process, so getting good results in first year is essential. You may also be eligible for credit recognition for certain subjects completed during the year.

- UTS Insearch diplomas
  Fast-track your way into the second year of your chosen UTS degree* by completing a higher education diploma at UTS Insearch. As the leading pathway provider to UTS, UTS Insearch offers diplomas in six disciplines: business, communication, design and architecture, engineering, information technology and science. These diplomas are designed in collaboration with UTS, so you’ll gain the same educational outcomes as a first-year UTS student.

*Domestic student? If you successfully complete a UTS Insearch diploma with the required grade point average (GPA), you’ll be guaranteed entry into a UTS degree. In most cases, you’ll also receive up to 48 points of recognition of prior learning.

- TAFE or private college diploma
  Studying a different university course is a great way to gain entry into your preferred degree – but so is completing an Australian Qualifications Framework Diploma at TAFE or a private college. If you achieve good marks, the diploma can add value to your application for the majority of UTS bachelor degrees. You may also be eligible for recognition of prior learning for certain subjects.

- Retake your HSC at TAFE
  Have a do-over. By spending a year at TAFE, you can redo your HSC in a single year – which means you’ll get a new ATAR at the end.

Jumbunna Unistart Program
Jumbunna Unistart is a unique twelve-month program offered to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students. You attend small classes at Jumbunna that are designed to build your confidence and academic skills in writing and mathematics, along with select subjects from your chosen degree. When you have successfully completed the program, you will progress fully into your chosen degree and receive recognition of prior learning.
