

UTS BUSINESS SCHOOL C10348 BACHELOR OF ECONOMICS

A study sequence is the optimal order to complete the courses in your program, as recommended by your Program Director. Following this sequence will ensure you have no trouble with course requisites and complete the program in the minimum advertised duration if you study full time.

YEAR 1

Session 1

Subject Code	Subject Name
23115	Economics for Business
26134	Business Statistics
23506	Strategic Decision Making and Game Theory
Option	6 credit points of 2 nd major or sub-major or electives

Session 2

Subject Code	Subject Name
23566	Economics for Business 2
23508	Quantitative Methods in Economics and Business
23571	Introductory Econometrics
Option	6 credit points of 2 nd major or sub-major or electives

YEAR 2

Session 3

Subject Code	Subject Name
23568	Intermediate Macroeconomics
23567	Intermediate Microeconomics
Option	12 credit points of 2 nd major or sub-major or electives

Session 4

Subject Code	Subject Name
23005	Behavioural Economics
Elective	Economics Elective 1
Option	12 credit points of 2 nd major or sub-major or electives

YEAR 3

Session 4

Subject Code	Subject Name
23509	Empirical Methods for Policy Evaluation
Elective	Economics Elective 2
Option	12 credit points of 2 nd major or sub-major or electives

Session 6

Subject Code	Subject Name
Elective	Economics Elective 3
23600	Economic Policy and Analysis (Capstone)
Option	12 credit points of 2 nd major or sub-major or electives

If you are having trouble enrolling in your subjects, check out our 'How to enrol in subjects' video or our recorded Enrolment & Timetabling webinar, or see FAQS and troubleshooting.