

Application for Refund of Fees

International students

Please read the Protocol on Refund of Fees for International Students to determine your eligibility for a refund before completing this form.

uts.edu.au/study/international/essential-information/fees-information/protocol-fees-and-refund

The Protocol sets out the guidelines and procedures that govern how UTS will assess requests from international students for a refund of fees.

ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

This form is to be completed by international students who are commencing or have recently commenced a course of study at UTS, and are applying for a refund due to their withdrawal from the course before the census date of their first session of study.

This refund application is applicable to:

- new students who have not previously studied at UTS, or
- students who have previously studied or completed a course at UTS and are now commencing a new course. For example, you have completed a Bachelor's degree at UTS and are commencing a Master's.

Please send the completed form to reps@uts.edu.au. Remember to also attach any additional documentation that supports your application.

COURSE WITHDRAWAL REQUIREMENT

This is not a course withdrawal form. If you have enrolled, you must first lodge a course withdrawal form before you can apply for a refund.

REFUND APPLICATION AFTER CENSUS DATE

If you have withdrawn from your course after the census date and wish to apply for a refund, you must submit an ASK UTS enquiry as a current student.

TRANSFERRING TO A NEW PROVIDER

If you are seeking to transfer to a new Australian education provider, you must submit a separate Application for Release form first.

Once you receive the written outcome of your release application, you can then apply for a refund. Your refund will not be processed until your release request is finalised.

PROCESSING TIME

The processing time for refunds is 28 days from the date your completed application and supporting documentation is received. Incomplete forms or insufficient supporting documentation may cause delays in the payment process. Your refund will not be processed until your course withdrawal is finalised.
