Current School Leaver Selection
For the Bachelor of Accounting (UAC Code 601010) current school leaver applicants are required to submit a compulsory Bachelor of Accounting Application Questionnaire, in addition to the UAC application form, and may also be required to attend an interview. Selection is on the basis of Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) together with additional information obtained through the compulsory questionnaire and interview.

Visit www.uts.ac/b-acc for information on how to apply.

Non Current School Leaver Selection
The Bachelor of Accounting is intended for current school leavers. Very few non-current school leavers are admitted to the Bachelor of Accounting.

For the Bachelor of Accounting (UAC Code 601010) applicants are required to submit a compulsory Bachelor of Accounting Application Form, in addition to the UAC application form, and must attend an interview if shortlisted.

Selection is on the basis of academic merit together with additional information obtained through the compulsory application and interview. Academic merit is determined on the basis of any qualifications listed below in the section "Qualifications Used in Selection".

Qualifications Used in Selection
The following qualifications are considered for admission to the Bachelor of Accounting

Secondary Qualifications
The following completed senior secondary qualifications are considered for admission. If there is more than one attempt at a secondary qualification, the most recent attempt will be used.
