Working closely with Jumbunna Indigenous House of Learning at UTS, UTS:INSEARCH is pleased to announce the UTS:INSEARCH 2015 Indigenous Scholarship Program which aims to bring UTS within reach for Indigenous students.

UTS:INSEARCH is a pathway provider to the University of Technology, Sydney (UTS) and has been educating students for over twenty years, offering a range of English and Diploma courses. Our programs equip students with the core knowledge and skills to thrive at UTS.

UTS:INSEARCH students have access to UTS facilities enabling them to experience university life while studying at UTS:INSEARCH and the recipients of the UTS:INSEARCH Indigenous scholarships will also have access to additional support services through Jumbunna Indigenous House of Learning.

SCHOLARSHIP DETAILS:

UTS:INSEARCH is offering up to nine scholarships for one of six Diploma courses. Applicants for scholarship will seek advice from Jumbunna on which INSEARCH program best prepares them for their future studies at UTS.

SCHOLARSHIP VALUE:

Between $27,000 - $34,500 depending on the Diploma chosen.

The scholarship recipient may also receive additional support with Co-op book vouchers, computer resources and public transport assistance. This will be reviewed on a case by case basis with Jumbunna and UTS:INSEARCH.

ELIGIBILITY:

The Scholarship program is open to all Australian Indigenous students under the age of 25 who have undertaken study in the past 3 years (purpose to identify potential to undertake current tertiary study).

SELECTION CRITERIA:

- Identify as an Australian Indigenous person.
- Demonstrate the capacity to benefit from a UTS:INSEARCH pathway program to UTS.
- Have applied to study at UTS via the Jumbunna Alternative entry program for 2015.

HOW TO APPLY:

Applications to be sent to:
