WHERE: University of Technology Sydney, Broadway Campus

FOR WHOM: Year 4 – 8 students

REGISTER: www.bit.do/brightfutures17

COST: $100

WORKSHOP: Master in Communication is a one day course which provides students with a chance to improve their communications skills and develop confidence when speaking in a variety of situations. Throughout the day, students will engage with a variety of activities and scenarios to learn strategies for presentation skills, dealing with nerves, the basics of body language and how to be a persuasive communicator. At the end of the day, all students will leave with a new perspective on how to communicate in a more meaningful and effective manner.

FACILITATOR: James Smith is the Founder and Managing Director of Masters Academy, a leading supplier of communication services to primary schools and high schools in NSW. James has delivered more than 50 professional development seminars, countless hours of classroom education and thousands of adjudications in competitions such as the PDC, ISDA, SDN, HICES, IPSHA, Legacy and the SMH Plain English Speaking Award. James is currently studying a Bachelor of Arts and Education. He is passionate about communication education, and ensuring that access to best practice resources is as equitable as possible for students and teachers around Australia.
