Achievement orientation
Maintains and inspires a results-driven approach, focuses on results and critical performance indicators.

1. Recall an important goal that you were set in the past. What strategies did you use to achieve it? What was successful?
2. How do you meet tight deadlines?
3. Thinking about a difficult task you were required to undertake, what extra effort did you exert to achieve the goals set and accomplish a task?
4. Thinking about a time when you did not achieve a goal or meet a deadline, what did you do? What was the outcome?
5. Can you recall a time when you were particularly effective on prioritising tasks and completing a project on schedule? How did you approach this and what was the outcome? What did you learn?
6. Describe a project or idea that was implemented primarily because of your efforts. What was your role? What was the outcome?
7. There are times when we work without close supervision or support to get the job done. Think about a time when you found yourself in such a situation. What did you do? What was the outcome?

Adaptability/Flexibility
Maintains effectiveness in a changing environment.

8. Consider a time when you had to adopt a new approach or style to accomplish a task. How did you manage the transition?
9. Think about a situation in which you had to adjust to a colleague’s working style in order to complete a project or reach your objectives. What did you do?
10. What do you do when priorities change quickly? Thinking about an example of when this happened, what did you do? What was the outcome?
11. Consider an example of an important goal that you set yourself in the past. Thinking about your success in reaching it, how did you approach it?
12. Reflect on a situation in which you had to adjust to changes over which you had no control. How did you handle it?
13. What tends to work with one person does not necessarily work with another. Think about a time when you had to be flexible in your style of relating to others. How did you vary your communication style with a particular individual? What was the result?
