

UTS:ACRI Research Associates

Expression of interest

The Australia-China Relations Institute at UTS (UTS:ACRI) endeavours to work with academics in UTS faculties and institutes across a variety of disciplines to help inform contemporary Australia-China relations.

UTS:ACRI seeks to appoint Research Associates to support these intra-university links.

About UTS:ACRI

The Australia-China Relations Institute is an independent, non-partisan research institute established by UTS in 2014. In 2019, the university undertook a five year review of UTS:ACRI's operations and performance. This resulted in a decision to continue to build UTS:ACRI as the premier research institute in Australia focusing on the Australia-China relationship. At the beginning of 2020, Professor James Laurenceson was appointed as the new UTS:ACRI Director. The Institute is committed to a mission of informing Australia's engagement with China through research, analysis and dialogue grounded in scholarly rigour.

Read more

UTS:ACRI Research Associate benefits

- Access to competitive UTS:ACRI research grants that support research informing Australia-China relations, including economic, political and social aspects of the relationship;
- Access to support to increase social impact, enabling scholarly research to reach a broader audience on Australia-China relationship in media, industry and government;
- Networking opportunities with UTS:ACRI's external partners;
- Invitations to UTS:ACRI events and receipt of UTS:ACRI's latest research and other relevant communications; and
- Showcase of academic profile on UTS:ACRI's website.

The position of UTS:ACRI Research Associate is a three-year honorary appointment. It is non-remunerative.

EOI application process

1. Complete the EOI form enclosed
2. Send the completed EOI form and up-to-date CV to acri@uts.edu.au Only genuine and complete applications will be processed.

Contact ming.liang@uts.edu.au with any further questions.

Expression of interest UTS:ACRI Research Associate
Name
Title (e.g. Dr)
UTS staff ID
Email
Phone
UTS Faculty (or equivalent)
Position
Research interest(s)  Please briefly outline the relevance of your research interests to Australia-China relations	