

UTS Accounting Discipline Research Seminar Program Spring Session 2020

Due to applicable university restrictions, all seminars will be via zoom. The seminar runs 12:00 pm -1:00pm on Mondays, unless otherwise advised. Zoom log in details for seminars (except those marked with an asterisk, which are internal only) can be gained by contacting the Accounting Discipline Group. The program is also available on the UTS Accounting Research seminar website.

Date	Presenter	Paper Name
03.08.20	Accounting DG Staff Meeting*
10.08.20	Honours student proposals*
17.08.20	Amanda White (UTS)	The remote emerging learning experiences of accounting faculty during Covid-19
24.08.20	Stephen Taylor (UTS)	Audit fee determinants: What really matters
31.08.20	Qiang Cheng (Singapore Management University)	The value of block chain applications: Evidence from asset-backed securities
07.09.20	Chen Chen (Monash)	Do acquaintance ties enhance future board membership prospects of tainted directors?
14.09.20	Bronwyn McCreddie (QUT)	Fight or flight? CEO human capital during financial distress
21.09.20	Teaching and Learning update*
28.09.20	Woo-Jong Lee (Seoul National University)	Financial reporting quality and employment: The case of refinancing risk
12.10.20	Jin Zhang (Monash)	Political considerations in cross-border M and A deals
19.10.20	SSP reports*
26.10.20	David Brown (UTS)	Using public enquiries as a data source for accounting research
02.11.20	Honours student presentations*
09.11.20	Samuel Tan (Singapore Management University)	Individual Lawyers, the SEC revolving door, and comment letters
16.11.20	Martin Bugeja (UTS)	Covid-19 and executive remuneration in Australia