UTS Indigenous Academic Development Program

Employer: UTS Jumbunna Institute for Indigenous Education and Research or relevant UTS Faculties/Divisions/or Units.

Application closing date: 15 December of each year (commencing an employment appointment in the following year)

Location: UTS Jumbunna Institute for Indigenous Education and Research Building 1, Floor 6, Ultimo Campus or the office and building of the relevant Faculty/Division/Unit.

The UTS Indigenous Academic Development Program involves the employment of UTS Indigenous HDR students and other postgraduate students as an Academic Intern (Indigenous Academic Development).

An Academic (Indigenous Academic Development) means an Indigenous higher degree research (HDR) student or other postgraduate student who is selected on the basis of their suitability to progress into a career as an academic member of staff.

Ideally, the HDR student will need to have passed the 'Stage 1 Milestone – Confirmation of Candidature' to be eligible for an appointment as an Indigenous Academic of the Future. The aim is that the HDR student or a postgraduate student will work up to a 0.4 (2 days per week) full-time equivalent (FTE) academic contract for the duration of their PhD or Masters by Research or postgraduate coursework.

An Academic (Indigenous Academic Development) will be employed in a UTS Faculty or other Academic Unit or Jumbunna Institute for Indigenous Education and Research and will have the opportunity to teach and/or undertake research, depending on the Faculty's requirements and/or the research student's professional interests, where relevant; and to mentor other Indigenous students.
