THE OLYMPIC GAMES: A Bibliography

Compiled by A. J. Veal

Last updated: July 2012

A suitable citation for this bibliography is:

Contributors to earlier versions of this bibliography included: Kristine Toohey, Alison Burkhardt and Peter Haxton.

While the bibliography is extensive, with some 2000 entries, it is not claimed to be comprehensive. It is arranged in alphabetical order by author, with a separate section at the end listing official Games reports. Key words are appended to references, in [square brackets]. Particular Olympic Games are indicated by the host city name only – eg. [Barcelona] – but by name and date if the city has hosted more than one games – eg. [Athens 1896] [Athens 2004]. The Adobe-Acrobat search facility can be used to locate items using key words or any word/name appearing in the reference.

The original version of the bibliography, with some 600 entries, was published in printed format in 1995 (see Burkhardt et al., 1995): this is now out of print and there are at present no plans to produce an updated print version.
