3.2 Benefit/s to Recipient

- Category One
UTS will pay for 50% of each Recipient's UTS tuition fees for the course enrolled in for the duration of the Scholarship as defined in clause 4.
- Category Two
UTS will pay for 25% of each Recipient's UTS tuition fees for the course enrolled in for the duration of the Scholarship as defined in clause 4.

The Scholarship cannot be transferred, deferred or redeemed for cash.

3.3 Payment of benefit/s:

- The tuition fee contributions will be made directly to the Recipient's UTS fees account each teaching session for the duration of the Scholarship as defined in clause 4.
- The tuition fee contributions are subject to the Recipient satisfying ongoing eligibility criteria as defined in clause 8.

4. DURATION

The duration of the Scholarship is the standard number of sessions required for completion of the Recipient's enrolled undergraduate course on the basis of a full-time study load, as specified in the letter of offer for admission to the course. Where the Recipient does not follow the usual standard full-time course structure, the total value of the Scholarship may be exhausted prior to course completion. The maximum duration of the Scholarship is eight sessions under any program.

5. RECIPIENT ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be eligible for the Scholarship, an applicant must meet all of the following criteria:

- Must be an international student (not an Australian citizen, New Zealand citizen or permanent resident of Australia); and
- Must meet all admission requirements for the selected UTS undergraduate program; and
- Must be commencing full-time study at UTS in Sydney; and
- Must have completed the Canadian British Columbia Certificate of Graduation (2004 graduation program) no longer than one year prior to commencing at UTS, and be admitted to UTS based on this qualification; and
- Must submit an application for course admission by 15th August 2017 for Autumn 2018 intake and by 15th August 2018 for Autumn 2019 intake.

NOTE: Students enrolling in a UTS transnational program are not eligible to apply for this scholarship.

6. RECIPIENT SELECTION CRITERIA

The Scholarship will be awarded to the highest ranked applicant(s) on the basis of academic merit in the Canadian British Columbia Certificate of Graduation (2004 graduation program).

Where there are multiple applicants with the same results, further consideration will be given to the applicant's response to the following question:

- How do you intend to utilise your UTS degree to contribute to the community.

Applicants may be informed in writing to submit a one page statement to address the above question.

7. SELECTION

Applications of eligible candidates will be presented to a Scholarships Selection Committee, which will undertake the selection of Recipients, usually in August/September each year.

The Scholarships Committee will be made up of at least three relevant members of the UTS community and is to include:

- Chair: Director, UTS International (or nominee)
- Manager, Fees and Scholarships (or nominee)
- And may include another UTS staff member

Offers will be authorised by the chair of the Scholarship Selection Committee.

8. ONGOING RECIPIENT ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

8.1 Academic progress:

The Recipient must maintain the minimum progression rules of the University for the duration of the Scholarship. If the minimum progression rules are not maintained, payment of the Scholarship may be suspended or terminated, unless the Recipient can demonstrate exceptional circumstances¹ for the consideration of the Scholarship Selection Committee.

8.2 UTS enrolment:

The Recipient of the Scholarship:

- Must continue to be enrolled as a full-time (22-24 credit points or more, in Autumn and Spring sessions) international student in an undergraduate course at UTS, unless he/she has been approved to study at reduced study load through the standard International Student Visa Holders Application to Reduce Study Load application process through a UTS Student Centre.
- Must continue to be enrolled as an international student in their first enrolled undergraduate degree course at UTS.
- The Scholarship is not transferrable to other UTS courses.

¹ Exceptional circumstances include but are not limited to disability, ongoing illness, carer's responsibilities and other educational barriers, and are considered by the UTS: International case-by-case.

8.3 Leave / Deferral

- If the Recipient defers the UTS offer or withdraws from the UTS course after the start of their first session, the Scholarship will be terminated and any tuition fee Scholarship payment already made for that session will be reversed.
- After the first session, if the Recipient has obtained an approved leave of absence from studies from the faculty concerned, and can demonstrate exceptional circumstances¹, they may apply to the Scholarship Committee via the Scholarships Office for a temporary suspension of the Scholarship during the period of approved leave. The Scholarship will be terminated if the Recipient takes leave without faculty approval or has not sought special temporary Scholarship suspension approval by the Scholarship Committee.

8.4 Other obligations and conditions

- The offer of the Scholarship is made subject to information provided by the Recipient being true and accurate.
- By accepting the offer of the Scholarship, each Recipient agrees to the Conditions of Award.
- The Recipient is responsible for advising the UTS International of any changes in circumstances that would make him/her ineligible for continuation of the Scholarship, e.g. taking leave of absence or deferring study, changing his/her international student visa status to other visa categories, including but not limited to Permanent Residency visa.
- The Recipient will be responsible for any study costs incurred outside UTS tuition fees, including payment of the Student Services and Amenities Fee and the Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC).
